Hi Rachel,

Thank you for your assistance in our revision of our August 2022 NDF application; I am hopeful we now have all the pieces in order.

- Regarding our financial structure, Savannah provided this outline to clarify that Appalshop holds the accounts for RUX's programs, but it's a partnership with Art of the Rural (from whose accounts I am paid as RUX staff):

Explanation of fiscal structure:

Art of the Rural is a national organization that connects communities, cultivates dialogue, and forwards rural-urban exchange. Appalshop is a fifty-year old arts, media, and community development organization in the coalfields of Appalachian Kentucky. They partnered in 2014 to found the Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange to test the potential of the arts to build stronger relationships across rural and urban Kentucky.

The two partners share administrative and financial responsibility for the Rural-Urban Exchange. Appalshop accepts grants and gifts for the Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange's programmatic expenses, primarily including the RUX leadership program. Art of the Rural maintains a Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange account to support administrative costs, including contract support and replication to other states.

- University of Louisville: there was a question about these invoices. Our contact at the University of Louisville is Jarayon Jackson, Assistant Director of Summer Operations. She can be reached at 502-854-3786 or by email at: jarayon.jackson@louisville.edu.
- Attached, I have updated our NDF; though since it was originally submitted before the weekend, I did not change page 5 regarding reimbursements (as we submitted before the event and at that time, only the items listed needed to be reimbursed). Please let me know if this needs to be corrected to show that all the funding requested as being considered reimbursement now.

Good Morning,

The organization is only responsible for reporting the Metro funds. OMB policy states if the payment is made to an individual, not the company, the invoice should be signed by the individual who received the payment. It is also a good practice to use so it doesn't appear the organization drafted the invoice. Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Thank you,

Roxanne

SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

The Rural-Urban Exchange (RUX) is Kentucky's premier creative leadership program. As a statewide network, we invest in strong personal relationships that bridge cultures, grow social capital, and unite diverse leaders towards common vision. Since 2014, 260 Kentuckians from 49 counties have joined the RUX network. We will host our 20th intensive this summer in our eleventh host community.

Our Mission: Together, we are growing relationships across divides to build a more collaborative and connected Commonwealth.

Our Vision: We envision a future in which Kentuckians value each other, create common ground, and understand our interdependence.

We image a Kentucky where: Kentuckians have a shared sense of place, and can see beyond the boundaries that exist between people and places. Kentuckians are ambassadors of their communities and of Kentucky, working together to create solutions to the challenges we face. Kentuckians are welcome as neighbors in other communities across geography, ideology, identity, race, gender, sector, and other barriers.

RUX attracts Kentuckians who are interested in getting to know different regions of the state while developing leadership skills. Each year, a panel of alumni review applications and select the incoming RUX Cohort. Cohort members are chosen based on their commitment to Kentucky and their diverse experiences of identity, upbringing, geography, and perspective. Members tend to include community leaders from all walks of life – artists, educators, farmers, attorneys, factory workers, financial advisors, historians, elected officials, nurses, poets, small business owners, students, retirees, and more. Once accepted, the cohort gathers at 6 community intensives over two-years, in at least 4 Kentucky regions.

During these community intensives, members hone professional and leadership skills through engagement with the Currency of Connection framework, which focuses on:

PLACE-The cohort experiences the culture, food, environment, economy, models, and identity of each community from that community's perspective. Between site visits and community dialogues, we facilitate nuanced conversations with members about what they've seen and heard. By doing this work in and with communities, we help members strengthen their familiarity, admiration, and connection to communities across Kentucky.

PEOPLE- Those seminar discussions are offered alongside opportunities for sharing and reflection about their own experiences, so that members recognize how the challenges and opportunities facing their communities intersect with other Kentucky regions. By revealing these connections, we develop the trust and cultural competency needed to work together.

PARTNERSHIP- While they explore Kentucky, members engage with the RUX curriculum to support creative leadership development, network building, and cross-sector collaboration. As a result, our members are better equipped to take the ideas that have inspired them during their time at RUX and make them happen when they get home. RUX alumni have collaborated on agriculture, arts, civics, downtown revitalization, workforce development, and recreation projects that touch every region of the state.

SECTION 5 – PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

The 2022 leadership cohort of the Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange will be hosted in Louisville, August 5-7, to learn more about the people, places and partnerships of this community. Themes for the Louisville intensive are focused on racial, environmental, and food justice as well as the unique cultural vitality and sense of place that Louisvillians enjoy.

A few agenda highlights include: a narrative stage, "Seeds of Change: Food Justice and Urban Ag" hosted by the Portland Museum and followed by a tour of West End Farms, including the Peoples Garden and Fifth Element Farms; a panel, "Social Justice: Louisville 2020 to Now" hosted at Louisville Public Media and moderated by Ramona Lindsey, followed by a tour of Roots 101; a tour of the Green Heart Project and time in the coordination room at the Christina Lee Brown Envirome Institute; a visit to Americana World Community Center; social time at Shakespeare in the Park, and the University of Louisville campus; as well as time to experience Central, Chickasaw, Iroquois, and Wyandotte Park. The cohort will enjoy lunch from the StrEatery at the Beechmont Gazebo with a local musical performance by Appalatin, lunch catered by Garden Girl Foods, and a Host Committee Welcome dinner prepared by chefs from the Lee Initiative. In each experience, we'll seek to learn from those most affected by the issues facing their communities, and those leading efforts of community transformation. Our members' evaluations reliably demonstrate that members begin to see a new perspective and think differently about communities that we visit as a result of their time in RUX.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

The Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange (RUX) is a creative leadership program that strengthens professional and intercultural competencies while building connections across racial, economic and geographic divides, towards our shared future. As such, through sponsorships and partnerships, we have kept our program accessible and low cost to participants. To clarify, the Rural-Urban Exchange programatic budget is included as attachment; the budget you see within this proposal is our project budget for the RUX Louisville Weekend Community Intense. We are requesting NDF funds to support the actual cost for 14 cohort members from Louisville and partial cost of a performance by the band Appalatin.

Funding will help support the cost for the cohort to participate in community intensive weekend, for the 2022 Louisville weekend for 14 Louisville RUX cohort members:

These funds will also support a fee for Louisville-based intercultural musical group, Appalatin in Beechmont during the Saturday 8.6.22 StrEatery lunch, which the cohort will enjoy at the Beechmont Gazebo with Councilwoman Nicole George.

To Whom It May Concern,

As the primary sponsor of the NDF for Appalshop Incorporated NDF for the Rural Urban Exchange (RUX) Louisville Community Intensive Weekend that took place August 5-7, 2022, I request Emergency Reimbursement for the program. Funding was expended prior to the NDF application due to logistics of booking Louisville partnerships and lodging ahead of time to ensure the weekend's programming was secure. Funding of the NDF allowed for additional local experiences in our community to be showcased as part of the intensive weekend.

Promoting positive community and cultural assets in the Southend is important to District 21 as part of the RUX's educational programming.

Good Morning LaTonya,

As you know, I have been working on the Rural Urban Exchange (RUX) NDF since July 2022. The application is from Appalshop, Inc. Due to the flooding in Eastern, KY, they were delayed in submitting their financials from the RUX program that took place in Jefferson County back in August. Thus, the NDF became an emergency reimbursement.

Their NDF has been updated this month and will be submitted for new business. I request that this email serve as documentation as for why this NDF has been extended for this length of time.

I am available if there are any questions or concerns.

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

RUX is designed to build relationships across sectors and regions in Kentucky, and to inspire collaboration and leadership development. The Steering Committee works year-round to create a stimulating and valuable experience for our members and host communities. We do this work in alignment with our Core Values of Connection, Openness, Diversity, and Inclusion, and our Supporting Intentions of Community, Justice, Trust, and Belonging.

We evaluate values alignment through evaluation platforms including entry and exit surveys, Community Intensive surveys, and live evaluations. Our evaluations ask questions to gauge the growth and learning about the peoples and places we visit from the cohort member's point of view, to measure the collaborations and partnerships being formed amongst the cohort and host community participants, to understand the ways RUX is engaging Kentuckians from across the Commonwealth in bridging divides that are more than geographic. We also measure our economic impact for each Community Intensive Weekend.

We invite alumni to share stories through case studies and impact-focused webinars so that we can better contribute learnings to the field.

RUX brings people together to share experiences that strengthen Kentucky from the ground up. We do that work together across three Community Intensives per year by committing to personal growth, investing in new relationships, seeding new projects, and telling our Kentucky stories.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

The Kentucky RUX is a partnership of The Art Of The Rural and Appalshop, and is facilitated by a statewide steering committee. RUX is supported by regional host partnerships, statewide program partnerships, and funding partners. Creating and nurturing partnerships is deeply significant to the sustainability of RUX, and the expansion of Kentucky's creative networks.

Each weekend is designed in collaboration with regional host partners, who guide the cohort's experience of their community. In Louisville, RUX is working with a Host Partner Consortium: Food Literacy Project, Hood to the Holler, Kentucky Performing Arts, Louisville Free Public Library, Louisville Metro Government, the Christina Lee Brown Envirome Institute at the University of Louisville, and the wonderful Louisvillians who are serving as part of the host committee.

Our 2022 Program Partners include: The Kentucky Arts Council and Kentucky Folklife Program, which help raise awareness about RUX mission and events, and provide technical support. In Louisville, the food justice narrative stage will be facilitated by Mark Brown, of the Kentucky Arts Council.

Our 2022 Funding Partners include: The National Endowment for the Arts, Elaine Musselman via the W. L. Lyons Brown Foundation, the Felix E. Martin Foundation, the Lee Initiative, the Kentucky Foundation for Women, the Kentucky Oral History Commission, and hundreds of individuals.

Gentlemen:

This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization which is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, because you are an organization of the type described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)*. Your exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the code is still in effect.

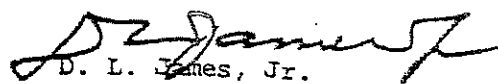

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination until the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, a grantor or a contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)* status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)* organization.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, please keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Appalshop, Inc.
Whitesburg, Kentucky

To the Board of Directors:

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Appalshop, Inc., (a nonprofit organization) as of and for the years ended September 30, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities, statement of functional expenses and cash flows and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Organization's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe the audit evidence we obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial positions of the Appalshop, Inc., as September 30, 2021 and 2020, and the respective changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

APPALSHOP, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2021 and 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of Appalshop Incorporated dba Appalshop, Inc. is presented to assist in understanding Appalshop, Inc.'s financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Appalshop, Inc.'s management, who is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Nature of Activities

Appalshop, Inc., a non-profit multi-disciplinary arts and education center located in Whitesburg, Kentucky, in the heart of Appalachia, producing original films, video, theater, music, and spoken-word recordings, radio, photography, and multimedia products.

Appalshop, Inc.'s goals are to enlist the power of education, media, theater, music, and other arts; to document, disseminate, and revitalize the lasting traditions and contemporary creativity of Appalachia; to tell stories the commercial cultural industries don't tell, challenging stereotypes with Appalachia voices and visions; to support communities' efforts to achieve justice and equity and solve their own problems in their own way; to celebrate cultural diversity as a positive social value; and to participate in regional, national, and global dialogue toward these ends.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The financial statements are presented in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958 dated August 2016, and the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) "Audit and Accounting Guide for Not-for-Profit Organizations" (the "Guide"). ASC 958-205 was effective January 1, 2018.

Under the provisions of the Guide, net assets and revenues, and gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, the net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purposes in performing the primary objectives of the Organization. The Organization's board may designate assets without restrictions for specific operational purposes from time to time.

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Organization or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

September 30, 2021 and 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Appalshop, Inc.'s policy is to classify cash deposit accounts and money market accounts as cash and cash equivalents in the accompanying statements of financial position and of cash flows since these instruments are readily convertible into known amounts of cash. See Note 3 for additional disclosure information.

Accounts Receivable

As is customary, Appalshop, Inc. does not require collateral from other organizations in the ordinary course of business. Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to the allowance for doubtful accounts based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Appalshop, Inc does not accrue finance charges on its past due accounts receivable. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the allowance and a credit to accounts receivable. Management did not consider an allowance for doubtful accounts necessary as of September 30, 2021 and 2020.

Inventory

Inventory, consisting primarily of original recordings, is stated at the lower of cost (determined on a first-in, first-out or specific identification basis) or market value.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Appalshop, Inc. capitalizes long-lived assets with acquisition costs greater than $2,500. Depreciation and amortization provided using the straight-line method over the estimated service life of the respective assets from three to seven years. See Note 4 for additional disclosure information.

Investments

Investments are carried at their fair value based on quote prices (unadjusted) for identical assets in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the accompanying statements of activities. The investments are subject to market risk. Appalshop, Inc.'s maximum exposure to accounting loss from its investments is represented by the amounts as presented on the accompanying statements of financial position. See Note 5 for additional disclosure information.

APPALSHOP, INC.
September 30, 2021 and 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

The Endowments

The FASB ASC provides guidance on the net asset classification of donor-restricted endowment funds for a not-for-profit organization that is subject to an enacted version of the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 ("UPMIFA"). UPMIFA is a model act approved by the Uniform Law Commission that serves as a guideline for states to use in enacting legislation. Effective March 25, 2010, the Commonwealth of Kentucky enacted a version of UPMIFA legislation. See Note 6 for additional disclose information.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The FASB ASC defines fair value, provides enhanced guidance for using fair value to measure assets and liabilities under current accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and expands the disclosure of the methods used and the effects of fair value measurements on earnings.

Contributions and Revenue

Grant revenue results from grant funds received as exchange transactions and contributions. Grant funds received in exchange transactions are deemed to be earned and reported in revenues of the applicable grant when Appalshop, Inc. has incurred expenses in compliance with the specific restrictions of the grant agreement. Expenses incurred for which grant funds have not been received are reported as grants receivable, while grant funds received but not yet earned are reported as unearned grant revenue. Restrictions are imposed by the other party to the exchange transaction and not by a donor. The associated net assets are without donor restrictions because the restrictions are imposed by the other party to the exchange transaction and not by a donor.

Unconditional contributions are recognized when pledged and recorded as net assets without donor restrictions or net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor-imposed restrictions. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Gifts of cash and other assets are reported with donor restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets.

When a restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restriction support. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. Contributions restricted for the acquisition of land, buildings and equipment are reported as net assets without donor restriction upon acquisition of the assets when placed in service.

During the year ended September 30, 2021, Appalshop, Inc adopted ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which modifies existing revenue recognition guidance for exchange transactions such that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Organization adopted this standard as of October 1, 2020, using the modified retrospective method. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Organization's financial statements.

APPALSHOP, INC.
September 30, 2021 and 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Functional Allocation of Expense

The costs of providing program and other services have been summarized by function, based on estimates developed by management. Allocation methods include assessment of time, effort and square footage.

Advertising Expense

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are generally charged to management and administrative expenses. Advertising costs totaled approximately $1,950 and $655 for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Contribution Services

Appalshop, Inc. receives a significant amount of contributed services of volunteers in connection with its various programs which do not meet the criteria for recognition. Accordingly, the value of these contributed services have not been reflected in the accompanying financial statements since it is not susceptible to objective measurement as required by the FASB.

Contributed Material

The FASB ASC requires recognition of in-kind contributions of tangible assets at fair value when received. The amounts reflected in the accompanying financial statements as in-kind contributions of materials are offset by like amounts included in in-kind expenses.

Income Taxes

Appalshop, Inc. is exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

The FASB ASC prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for how an entity should recognize, measure, present, and disclose in its financial statements uncertain tax positions that the entity has taken or expects to take on a tax return. The FASB ASC requires that the financial statements reflect expected future tax consequences of such positions presuming the taxing authorities' full knowledge of the position and all relevant facts, but without considering time values.

Appalshop, Inc. is subject to routine audits by taxing authorities; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. Under federal tax statutes of limitations, Appalshop, Inc. believes it is no longer subject to federal income tax examinations for fiscal years prior to September 30, 2017.

Concentrations

Financial instruments that expose Appalshop, Inc. to concentrations of credit and market risk consist primarily of cash equivalents and investments. Cash equivalents are maintained at high-quality financial institutions and Appalshop, Inc. has not experienced any losses on its cash equivalents.

APPALSHOP, INC.
September 30, 2021 and 2020

Note 1 – Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Measure of Operations

The statements of activities reports all changes in net assets, including changes in net assets from operating and non-operating activities. Operating activities consist of those items attributable to Appalshop, Inc.'s ongoing activities. Non-operating activities are limited to resources that generate return from investments, endowment contributions, financing costs, and other activities considered to be a more unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through March 18, 2022 the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

The Organization continues to monitor the direct and indirect effects of COVID-19, which has led to closings of non-essential services and limitations for public assemblies. While the immediate and long-term financial impact for the Organization cannot be reasonably estimated, management anticipates preparing amendments to future budget projections reflecting any significant changes in revenues and program service activities as a result of the effects of the coronavirus.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

On February 25, 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This ASU requires lessees to recognize assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for leases with lease terms greater than twelve months. The recognition, measurement and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease by a lessee primarily will depend on its classification as finance or operating lease. This amends current guidance that requires only capital leases to be recognized on the lessee balance sheet. ASU 2016-02 will also require additional disclosures on the amount, timing and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. The guidance is effective for the Organization for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018 with early adoption permitted. On July 17, 2020, the FASB tentatively decided to defer the effective date to fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021.

The Organization is presently evaluating the effects that this ASU will have on its future financial statements, including related disclosures.

Note 2 – Description of Grants, Programs, and Projects

The Appalachian Media Institute (or AMI) has trained local, central Appalachian young people in media skills since 1988. A staff supported by peer trainers and other Appalshop, Inc. staff work with high school and college-age youth in after-school media labs focusing on audio and video production and in a seven-week Summer Institute during which 8-12 student interns produce short documentary films on community issues.

Appalshop, Inc. Films just released its latest film, Portraits and Dreams, in the fall of 2020. It was included in the PBS series AMDOC and was broadcast in September 2020 to a nation-wide audience. It is now being distributed by PBS. The film follows photographer Wendy Ewald as she re-visits students 35 years after her initial interaction with them as their 1970s-era photography teacher. The film raises questions about the lasting power of photography, arts education, and the representation of Eastern Kentucky by people (in this case children) who are of and from the mountains.

Appalshop Archive was formally established in 2002 to safeguard and improve access to the organizations creative and institutional materials, as well as a growing number of donated collections that help enrich understanding of the region. The Archive manages a climate-controlled vault and cataloging database, and carries out preservation work on a variety of formats. The Archive also creates public programming to engage community members in reflection on shared history.

The Community Media Institute (or CMI) works with people in grassroots community organizations to help them develop the skills to tell their own stories. The CMI Making Connections project documents initiatives of mountain communities to address a rapidly changing economic and political reality. Making Connections produces audio and video reports for radio and the internet.

The Letcher County Culture Hub is a growing network of community-led organizations in Letcher County, Kentucky, who work together to build a culture and economy where "we own what we make." Appalshop artists and organizers collaborated with county residents to create new theater, film, music, and radio pieces about the search for a sustainable future. As residents shared stories, they recognized how many value and dreams they shared, and began building a cooperative network – the Letcher County Culture Hub.

Roadside Theater creates and presents plays based on the history and lives of Appalachian people; collaborates with other theater companies nationally to create plays addressing issues of place, race, and class; and works with communities across the country to help them explore their communities' cultures and concerns through theater and media. Roadside staff have documented their methodologies in a series of curriculum guides and on its website. Currently, former Roadside alumni are compiling an anthology of their works for publication later in 2021.

Seedtime on the Cumberland now in its 36th year, is a multi-disciplinary arts festival bringing together some of the finest regional and national musicians, craftspeople, and food vendors, as well as producing a series of film screenings and workshops.

Fiscal years 2019 through 2021, Appalshop celebrated its 50th Anniversary with a capital campaign to fund several new board-approved funds, which will assist Appalshop, Inc. in reaching strategic goals and support short-term and long-term sustainability.

The fund policies were approved by the Board of Directors and the fund was then established and invested with Wells Fargo, being seeded by donations from individual and foundation donors during the 50th campaign. The funds were subsequently moved to Ameriprise Financial in FY21. These includes:

Working Capital Fund

Designed to facilitate Appalshop's ability to cover cash flow related to current obligations such as existing payables with unrestricted cash. Working Capital will be contained within the undesignated, unrestricted operating account and not be subject to an explicit spending policy. Appalshop is establishing this as a cash fund held at Ameriprise.

The Working Capital fund will be used for short term – 12 months or less – bridge loans to supplement cash flow, as needed. The use of funds can be project specific, but could also be broadly used by Appalshop, and would be administered at the Executive Director's discretion in consultation with Financial Director.

Facilities (Building and Grounds) Reserve

To allow Appalshop to make periodic investments in the upkeep of fixed assets without depleting working capital reserves. The reserve will be established as an invested account held at Ameriprise.

All withdrawals from this fund are to be used for the purpose of maintaining Appalshop's fixed assets and must be approved by the Board. All withdrawals from the fund must be fully repaid within two years if less than $25,000 or within five years if greater than $25,000. Cumulative withdrawal balances and repayment plans will be included in the regular financial reporting package presented to the Board

Artistic Reserve

Intended to allow Appalshop to invest in artistic programmatic opportunities without depleting working capital reserves for regular operations. Appalshop is establishing as invested fund held at Ameriprise.

The Artistic Reserve fund will primarily be used for executing new, artistic programmatic opportunities. However, in the event Appalshop loses a major artistic funder, the Artistic Reserve would be tapped to cover a portion of these lost funds. All withdrawals must be pre-approved by Appalshop's Board and must be fully repaid within three years if less than $100,000, or within five years if greater than $100,000.

In the case of a funder exit, or extraordinary market loss, the Artistic Reserve will be available when:

1. The loss is greater than $50,000;
2. There is a clear plan for new revenue sources to be cultivated;
3. All expense reduction plans are implemented; and
4. Appalshop's Board approves the repayment plan and withdrawal.

Quasi-Endowment

Allowing Appalshop to have an additional long-term, invested fund controlled by the Appalshop Board (instead of the separate, restricted Trust managed by Trustees). This fund will be held at Ameriprise and follow our socially responsible investment strategy.

APPALSHOP, INC.

The Quasi Endowment can include funds from a variety of individual donors and foundations. Most of the fund will have specific use described by donor intent, however a portion of the fund may be restricted. Only the earnings returned from the fund (5%), and not the principal itself, will be used by Appalshop annually. With approval from the board, Appalshop's Executive Director and Financial Director will facilitate disbursements in October, at the beginning of Appalshop's fiscal year. Funds with specific donor-intent will be given as directed. Unrestricted funds will be used at the discretion of the board.

In the case of a major emergency, (fire, flood, security) the Quasi-Endowment's principal may be drawn from with approval by Appalshop's Board. In the instance, Appalshop's Executive Director would first need to seek relevant professional input before making a detailed, justifiable recommendation to the board.

Glenn Ihrig Scholarship Fund

In 2020, Appalshop donor, Charles Glenn Ihrig, donated stock for the initial funding of a scholarship fund established and invested in his name, at Ameriprise. The purpose of the fund is restricted to benefitting a yearly scholarship for a youth participant in the Appalachian Media Initiative summer documentary training program. The donor's intent, over time, is to add contributions to the fund and increase the value to total $70,000 in order to provide a full yearly scholarship taken from the fund's earnings only. Due to the need for further funding of the account, this fund will not be used until full funding is achieved.

Note 6 – Endowments

Appalshop, Inc.'s endowment funds are held in Appalshop, Inc. Trust (the "Trust") established January 9, 1990. The Board of Trustees, elected by the Appalshop, Inc.'s Board of Directors, are responsible for making distributions of earnings on the endowment funds. Earnings on the endowment funds may be used only for the production of new works and educational programs in the arts and humanities. The distributions shall be used solely in the United States, shall not be paid to private individuals, shall not be used in any political campaign for public office, and shall not in any substantial part be used to influence legislation.

Appalshop, Inc. follows UPMIFA and its own governing documents. With the exception of one donor, Appalshop, Inc.'s donors have not placed restrictions on the use of the investment income or net appreciation resulting from the donor-restricted endowment funds.

Appalshop, Inc. has established investment and spending policies for the endowment funds that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowments while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of these endowment funds over the long-term. Appalshop, Inc. has not established a written investment policy. Historically, the trustees have established that 60% of funds should be invested in equity and 40% in bonds, and the equity funds should be invested in a socially responsible manner. The spending policy established by Appalshop, Inc. calculates the amount of money that is to be distributed from Appalshop, Inc.'s endowment funds. The earnings are made available as matching funds to Appalshop, Inc. projects as determined by the Board of Trustees and the Appalshop, Inc.'s Board of Directors. The procedure currently in place for determining the amount to be distributed on a semi-annual basis is 5% of the average total holdings of the Trust over the previous twelve months less costs associated with management of the Trust and meetings of the Trustees.

Kentucky RUX Additional Louisville Videographer Contractor Statement of Work

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

in close contact with the RUX staff and Steering Committee team:

- Attend Louisville RUX events as noted below to provide high quality video footage as described below.
- In all efforts, model the mission, vision, values and standards of behavior for the Kentucky Rural-Urban Exchange. This includes following RUX Covid protocols and those of the host community.

VIDEOGRAPHY STRATEGY

The video footage from this weekend should focus on documentary-style coverage from the events that can be translated into marketing. Think about footage that translates our mission: people, place, partnership, as well as the currency of connection. <https://www.kyrux.org/who>

General Footage Goals:

- "People, Place, Partnership" is RUX's ethos - so, capturing RUX participants interacting with each other, hosts, and spaces.
- general documentation of the programs/events/locations (just clips, no need to record panels/presentations in full, we will have another setup for that), with the exception of the Food Justice narrative stage on Sunday, which needs to be recorded in full.
- capturing footage that reads urban/city environment
- a few (3-4?) informal on-the-fly interviews with RUX participants - we'll ID folks and pull them for you/conduct interviews.

OUTCOMES

Delivery of footage to Taylor Killough Williams (for RUX drive upload) by Tuesday August 9, 2022.

Shot List

- Saturday, 8/6, 12p-5:30/6p (StrEatery lunch, Social Justice panel at Louisville Public Media, ROOTS 101 tour, homerooms)
- Sunday, 8/7, 9a-12p (Food Justice panel at the Portland Museum, and urban garden tours, on-the-fly interviews)
