COUNCILWOMAN @# holton stewart, you have a special person here tonight.

C1

>> okay, I would like to introduce you all tonight jackie leaser. Jackie is our page for the night.

He is a resident of district 25.

He is a very fun-loving eight-year-old student @# elementary with a big heart.

He's the youngest of two children, and loves his older sister and parents.

He sings his mother a good nights on every night.

He is a lover of all animals, especially small ones. His favorite our guinea pigs. @# maybe chicken, puppies, and kittens.

When he is not being lovable, he is very funny.

Really enjoys being the source of entertainment.

He will do anything he can to make someone laugh, especially his grandparents.

He likes to feel like he's helping people, so he wants to either be a fireman or a teacher @#when he grows up.

Many people that have spent time with jack have commented on how good his manners are.

He has been learning to cook for himself and others. He enjoys the independent tasks he is given.

This past year, he has been taking tae kwon do classes at a local studio, and is looking forward to move up a belt.

Like most children his age, he can be found playing video games, watching cartoons, swimming, or reading books in his free time.

His most passionate about being around other children his age, and looking forward to outings with his cousins or friends.

Please welcome tonight, jackie leaser.

C1

>> welcome, jackie.

Thank you for helping out tonight.

Thank you COUNCILMAN Holton stewart.

MADAME Claire, are there any addresses to counsel?

>> yes there are.

>> let me remind those to please refrain from using profanity or using derogatory statements to council members.

MADAME Claire, please bring the speakers forward.

>> rick lucas.

>> yes, thank you.

I would like to thank the members of the council. My name is rick lucas.

I'm the PRESIDENT Of the park neighborhood association. we have been inundated with homeless camps in our neighborhood, street and properties.

Sometimes in our homes.

Personally my home has been broken into twice.

The third attempt when I was home.

Someone was on my back porch trying to get an the back door at 4:00 this morning.

He @#was on the back porch huffing gas.

Did not seem scared when I confronted him.

He did not leave the property until I told him the cops were coming.

Right down the street, a retired woman left the one window open, not up to watch tv, wakes up to two men in her living room.

The @#impact in our neighborhood is hard to convey.

Every neighbor I've talked to has had a negative or dangerous experience with the homeless.

Ranging from plants being stolen from the front porch to being confronted in their backyard or in their living room.

The homeless in the camps are mostly men, and they have addiction issues.

This is not your friendly neighborhood drunk.

This @#is not otis doing something silly.

Oh shucks did it again.

Many are desperate and dangerous men.

I would estimate, over the last few years, over 100 and incidents in our neighborhood alone.

We feel like we are in a @# neighborhood under siege at times.

We appreciate the effort for the city. That is a good thing. We think that should continue. There are multiple organizations that offer food, rehab, and other services every day.

We applaud those efforts. Quite frankly, if someone wants to live and attend, @#somewhere, and get high every day, that is their business.

I do not care.

I'm not comfortable with 30 or 40 grown men doing it across the street from my house.

I don't know if you feel comfortable with that either.

We are frustrated.

For the last three years, we have made hundreds of calls to the city.

Looking for help to no avail.

The homeowners, taxpayers and voters have been ignored.

Loudly and profoundly @#ignored it feels like we are asking the city to advocate for us, and afford us a balance must be found.

Some will not be happy.

Offering and the services is responsible irresponsible.

We are not helping the addicted.

We are enabling them.

We need our leaders to make @# tough decisions and implement policies that continue to help those who want and need help, but also champions the homeowners, taxpayers and voters of the city.

You for your time.

>> thank you.

>> allison.@#

>> I have a similar topic hello, cancel, I am with the coalition for the homeless.
I'm here to discuss the state of homelessness and kentucky.
A total of 10,640 louis williams@# experienced homelessness in 2021 alone.

this number continues to grow.
I am a social worker an have experience seeing housing and security firsthand.

I have been privileged to work with an amazing group of clients, who have all had vastly different life experiences.

From those clients, I had a family who was on the verge of homelessness, and needed to move from @#their current home due to unfair unsafe living conditions.

The budget only allowed them a small number of places to live.
Their eviction from two years prior limited their choices even more.

This family dealt with the financial hardship of trying to support a child who needed extra help due to @#the disability.

They've had challenges and health issues that require the parent to depend on state friends for treatment and services.

The stressors of everyday life, in addition to their unique hardship made it incredibly difficult to fin housing.

They lacked family suport@#, and had very few options.

Fortunately, we were able to find them an apartment.

This is not been the outcome for a lot of people in need of homes.

Many of which have been forced to live in their cars while they continue to search for permanent housing.

The lack of affordable housing and homelessness is a major issue in kentucky.

This is just one story.

So @#many other individuals and families experience similar struggles.

Homelessness is not the people you see on the street.

Many are forced to jump from house to house.

Couch surfing, as their only way to keep a roof over their head.

Most people@# see shelters as dangerous and overcrowded.

The cost of living is expensive.

79% of kentucky households report paying over 30% of their income on rent.

The average rent for two bedroom apartment is 1002 one $26.

Federal housing vouchers only pay 918.@# kentuckians are dealing with financial and securities that put them on the path towards homelessness.

The situation is not getting any better.

This problem will continue unless we act.

I am here to highlight the need and encourage you to be part of the solution.

We need more @#affordable housing in all parts about community.

At least an additional 31,000 units of rental.

We need land development reform to build housing, and permanent supportive housing for people who want to survive.
Homelessness is everyone's problem and I hope we can solve it together.

>> thank you. @#

paul wesslund.

>> thank you, my name is paul wesslund, I am here to speak in support of the clean renewable energy resolution you passed in 2020.

First I want to congratulate you for taking the bold and @# visionary step.

You clearly understand global warming is threatening our way of life.

One recent headline brought home the tragic and real-world consequences of climate change right here in kentucky.

The headline read, warmer and wetter.

u.S. Changing climates helps fuel @#record kentucky flooding, experts say.

I have spent most of my professional career as a writer in the utility industry.

After decades of following climate change issues, there's a clear bottom line to me.

That is the human-caused greenhouse admissions are raising the temperature of the planet @#in ways that threaten our standard of living, not only for our grandchildren, but for our children.

That is why your resolution to said clean energy goals is so important.

Your resolution is why I wrote an essay published this summer in courier-journal with @#the headline, why the louisville metro council is smarter than the U.S. Supreme court on global warming.

I am part of a group that is working to help yo implement that clean energy resolution.

In fact, next week we are having a public zoom meeting, that I invite you @#to to attend, and spread the word to others.

I asked that a flyer be distributed to you this evening.

The event is titled, real good news.

We have been holding these events every quarter for the last two years.

The reason is, we understand actually carrying out @#and implementing this resolution will be harder than passing it in the first place.

We hope these good news events can provide information and build support that will make it easier for you to make a reality of clean energy in louisville.

Over the past two years, the quarterly invents included the mayor's @#forum last spring, word seven of the candidates attended, including the two leading candidates.

Or than 100 people attended the event.

At next week's form, on wednesday SEPTEMBER 20th, we will be talking about renewable energy successes so far, both here in louisville, and cincinnati, which passed a similar clean energy resolution two years ago.

There will be great music from louisville's own john gage.

Thank you again.

Please continue louisville's progress to a healthy environment for all of us.

>> motion, arthur.

>> thank you. Is there any discussion? @#

thank you.

This ordinance seeks to bring more equity to the storm water drainage rate for those living in single unit condos up to four units.@# it adds an implementation date and steps out from the definitions.

Voted on committee unanimously.

i would encourage others to do so.

This actually is sponsored by piagentini.

If councilmember piagentini wants to say more, I'm @#sure that would be welcomed.

>> on my.

>> you can say it.

>> I am regretting this.

>> thank you very much.

For a little more clarity, as CHAIRWOMAN George says, right now, townhouse type structures have been lumped into@# class b structures.

Class b structures for drainage. Generally intended to build at high-rise apartments and large apartment complexes.

They were lumped into the same grouping, with class a being single-family residences.

The charge @#for drainage, not sewage to be clear was double that of single-family homes.

This brings equity to those folks that have had the smaller type homes up to four connected townhome or condo to @#style homes.

It brings them in line with the single-family home charge.

It saves them about $10 per month.

It brings the charge to about $20 a month.
$10 a month.

We collaborate directly on this with stakeholders.

The amendment was through a collaboration with their legal counsel.

I appreciate your support of this@# updated ordinance.

>> should I take my money back >> we will gladly accept your money, MR. PRESIDENT pro-tem.

I will say I have never done one to ask for the council support.

This is the first when I'm doing.

It's because @#I, as well as councilmember Mccraney knows it truly impacts every neighborhood in our city.

I want us to think back to a time whenever we were looking for a job, needed som advice about how to apply, what to wear.

Someone to @#look over our resume pick someone to tell us what to do in a job interview., to help us make the connection to the first job, the opportunity to put the foot in the door.

The impact it had on us, an how valuable that was twice.

I want everyone to think of@# the dozens of women to have had that same experience because of dress for success.

Not only can women come in and receive financial empowerment and services.

Enclosing that is work appropriate, but having someone look at the resume.

Having someone talk to them about @#the job interviewing process.

Talk to them about how to become financially independent.

How to manage her money.

Financial literacy.

Job skills.

tech skills.

All these things we know people need.

It is truly changing lives.

I believe it is 80% of the women they work with live in poverty.

We know that when people become independent, families become economically dependent.

Our whole community benefits from the services.

This@# in particular is to buy them a cargo van.

We got to see one at the recent event they had.

The combination closet, office, library, job hunting @#place on wheels.

It is truly incredible.

It's going to impact thousands of lives in our community.

They cannot do it without us.

Please, I would urge you all for your generous support tonight.

She's been instrumental in this.

MR. PRESIDENT pro-tem she might want to add some words to the board.

>> COUNCILWOMAN Mccraney.

>> thank you.

Thank @#you MR. PRESIDENT pro-tem . I don't have anything further to say.

I think the COUNCILWOMAN Did a superb job in summarizing the need of this particular ask.

I think I am encouraging everyone to be a part of this phenomenal opportunity@#, and I encourage you also to one day visit dress for success so that you can go into the van and look at how incredibly stocked it is, and how their mission is to go to various neighborhoods, and help people secured a @#job and get closing.

it is a full array of

I think you and encourage your
