ANDY BRANTON

I spent most of my twenties feeling powerless, hopeless, and aimless. Louisville pulled me out of that rut; it gave me purpose.

My wife and I moved to District 3 when she took a Staff Attorney position at the Louisville-Jefferson County Public Defender. Since then I've canvassed for a remarkably qualified judicial candidate and celebrated her win with a community of the highest caliber.

I started my own small business taking care of musicians in the area. I found my feet at a day job where I collaborate daily with folks from different countries, educational backgrounds, and career levels.

I am most proud of the fact that my wife and I are principal organizers in the Louisville Public Defenders Union. The Public Defender has for too long neglected its attorneys—the first line of defense for the most vulnerable individuals in our community. No one should be subjected to unreasonable workloads and daily indignities - in white or blue collar work.

I would be honored to continue in my purpose of service to the Louisville community as the Councilperson for District 3.
