4. Justification

To whom it may concern:

Thank you for taking the time to review our case. As you are aware, we the owners of 1226 E. Breckinridge St. are seeking the approval of a conditional use permit to operate a short term rental here. As the owners, we strongly believe that our new, beautifully renovated home would be an amazing addition to the community, as the near future plans for the surrounding area continue to develop.

Our home is the first home that is zoned residential, all of the surrounding properties to us are zoned commercially, which would allow them to operate with a Conditional Use Permit with minimal approvals. We feel that if our state of zoning were different, we would be allowed to operate as wished.

With the recent addition of Paristown Hall, and the future plan for the Urban Government Center, we feel we give folks visiting the area a unique opportunity to explore our city and community in ways they may not have if forced to choose only from accommodations outside the perimeters of Paristown/Germantown; which will ultimately provide a positive experience to drive them back to visit time and time again. Our undergoing renovations to this home have captured the allure and antiquity of Paristown/Germantown, which has a rich history of community, architecture and togetherness. In addition, the current short term rental homes inside our 600 ft radius do not offer as large of a space as our home, unfortunately not allowing sizeable families to come, stay and enjoy the area in close proximity to all of the shopping, restaurants and entertainment available. 1226 E. Breckinridge Street was built in 1900 as a large family home, and we have taken extreme measures to ensure this home reverts back to its original state; maintaining the style, character and original intended use of the property. Alongside this renovation, we have worked hand in hand with our immediate neighbor, Highlands Community Ministries to better the look of the neighborhood, and will continue to do so in the future.

With the support of our neighbors, we believe the addition of a short term rental at 1226 E. Breckinridge Street is an amazing opportunity to better and empower the community by allowing outside visitors to see all we have to offer in the area. Thank you again for your time.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Denison and King Denison Properties
