Feb. 21, 2014

Dear Councilwoman Ward-Pugh,

Please join us on Wednesday, April 23, 2014 as we host the Fourth Annual Green Spark Awards at the Seelbach Hotel.

The Green Spark Awards is the largest event in Kentucky that recognizes and celebrates individuals, businesses and organizations that are working for a sustainable future through environmental stewardship and energy efficiency. An award will be given for each of the following categories:

- ▲ Business Leadership to UPS: for demonstrating a commitment to sustainability by building a new LEED building in Louisville, recycling, energy and water conservation
- ▲ Educational Institution to Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest: for their educational programs that teach the intimate connections between humans and nature
- ▲ Youth Achievement to Assumption HS Environmental Committee: in resource conservation like creating a video on garbology to educate the community about what we put in the landfill
- ▲ Non-Profit Organization to Louisville Grows: for promoting community gardens in the city
- ▲ Leadership to James Bruggers: for quality journalism on local environmental issues

Location and Time:

Grand Ballroom of the Seelbach Hilton Hotel, 500 South 4th Street
Wednesday, April 23, 2014. Registration begins at 11:00 AM. Lunch will begin at 11:30

Keynote speaker: David Karem, Executive Director, Waterfront Development
Master of Ceremonies: Natasha Collins, Director of Media Relations, LG&E and KU Energy LLC
Honorary Chairman: Congressman John Yarmuth

All proceeds from the event will go directly to Project Warm. Every year Project Warm helps thousands of our struggling Louisville neighbors by reducing the costs of heating and cooling old and energy inefficient homes. Since 1982, Project Warm has provided free weatherization services to more than 37,000 low-income households in Louisville, reducing energy bills for these families up to 20 percent. To date, Project Warm's clients have saved more than $25 million in energy costs.

Tickets are $35.00 per person

To purchase tickets or for additional information please visit www.projectwarm.org

Join us as we recognize the 2014 Green Spark Award honorees!

Sincerely,
Frank
