

Daniel R. Garst, M.D.

Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology

CURRICULUM VITAE

EDUCATION

- 1968-1972 University of Virginia
B.S. In Civil Engineering with Distinction, Phi Delta Theta.
Honors: Omicron Delta Kappa, Tau Beta Pi, Raven Society, Student Council,
Secretary of the Engineering School, and Intermediate Honors
- 1978 University of Utah
One year of postbaccalaureate premedical studies
- 1979-1983 University of Louisville
M.D., Phi Delta Epsilon

RESEARCH

Effect of Dopamine on Canine Regional Myocardial Blood Flow.
Federation Proceedings 40(3): 710, 1981.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Date of Birth: August 17, 1950.
Birthplace: Louisville, Kentucky

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 1987-Present Private Practice Psychiatrist-Louisville, KY
- 1983-1987 Resident Physician in Psychiatry, Vanderbilt University Hospital.
- 1985-1987 Psychiatric Consultant on extracurricular basis at Luton Mental Health Center.
Duties included medication followup on a wide spectrum of patients and geriatric consultation at four nursing homes.

- 1984-1985 Extracurricular employment for psychiatric consultations at DeBerry Correctional Institute (psychiatric correctional facility for the State of Tennessee).
- 1984 Extracurricular employment as a physician at Parthenon Pavilion; Nashville, Tennessee.
- 1979 Medical Orderly, Methodist Evangelical Hospital; Louisville, Kentucky.
- 1978 Volunteer patient representative, University of Utah Hospital.

BOARD CERTIFICATION

June, 1990 Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (in Psychiatry)

PAST ACADEMIC POSITION

University of Louisville School of Medicine, Clinical Instructor.

OFFICES HELD

President of the Medical Staff, Our Lady of Peace Hospital, 1990-1991.