SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

Our Vision - a world in which humanity is spared the scourge of war, human rights are honored, the natural environment is protected, and the United States is a constructive member of the United Nations for the well-being of all humankind.

Our Mission - The United Nations Association of the United States of America Kentucky Division (UNA-USA, KY Division) is a membership organization dedicated to inform, inspire and mobilize the American people to support the ideals and vital work of the United Nations. UNA-USA is a program of the United Nations Foundation. As part of the United Nations Foundation, UNA-USA fosters awareness of the UN through various national initiatives and programs. UNA-USA and its sister organization, the Better World Campaign, represent the single largest network of advocates and supporters of the United Nations in the world. Learn more about UNA-USA's programs and initiatives at www.unausa.org.

Our Services: United Nations Association of the United States of America is a center for innovative programs engaging Americans in issues of global concern (which, at times, are local concerns, too). We work to accomplish our mission by youth engagement, advocacy efforts, education programs, and public events.

UNA-USA KY Division created UNA at U of L the end of 2015 for additional youth engagement. We continue to do advocacy, education and awareness of global issues which at times are also local issues. We hold numerous meetings during the year. The state KY Division mentors and helps Chapters in our Commonwealth: UNA-USA Louisville Chapter, UNA-USA BlueGrass/Lexington, UNA-USA Frankfort Chapter and UNA at U of L. We help in the establishment of additional chapters in KY.

We partner with other NGOs like Alpha Kappa Alpha Eta Omega to teach classes about the UN, UNA-USA, Globalization. And teachers are given Model UN information.

The First Model UN at U of L will be held Nov. 3-5. It is open to students from other colleges, too. We are working with UNA-USA Louisville Chapter VP Dr. Tricia Gray. We sought a speaker on Refugees from national UNA-USA and we will be able to utilize this speaker THREE times! First to present a Power Point to Delegates and Professors, then the next day to board members, students and the public. We believe a student class will also receive the presentation before our speaker returns to Washington, D.C. This will be our UN Day Program.

We present annual awards (Akers Humanitarian Award) and Chenault/Delambre YOUTH Award when deserving individuals (living or deceased) are nominated. These presentations occur in April at our Annual Meeting.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

Co-Sponsors: American Association of University Women Louisville Branch; Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW), Derby City Chapter; Kentucky Foundation for Women, Louisville Office for Women; Center for Women and Families; UNA-USA BlueGrass/Lexington Chapter; UNA-USA Louisville Chapter; UNA-USA Frankfort Chapter; UNA at U of L Campus Chapter.

UNA-USA KY has had years of collaboration and good working relationship with the above organizations (note: Center for Women & Families is a new Co-Sponsor). The Co-Sponsors will help disseminate information by emails, facebook, newsletters, websites and word of mouth. Co-Sponsors engage their memberships that include professionals who might be able to get CEUs to have them attend. Additional volunteers from these NGOs is a big help. Inkind printing helps, too. Information can be taken back to their national organizations and government sponsors can potentially give information at committee meetings, board meetings and to staff. The awareness should allow more detection of victims and be able to direct victims to get help that is available in the area. Also non governmental organizations provide funds to help with items not in this grant application - such as travel and lodging for speakers. It is important to note that community members were the highest percent who reported to the National Human Trafficking Hotline number (nearly 30% of calls came from Community Members in this 2015 year study of 22,000 calls. It was shocking that only 0.8% of calls were from educators/school personnel. These folks observe and talk with children, youths and college students many hours per day. This study shows a lack of reporting from this sector. We plan to increase awareness at educational institutions so the future reports to the National Human Trafficking Resource Center will show an increase in calls and increase in percent of calls from educators/schools, NGO representatives and the public.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request dated August 20, 2016, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in September 2015, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Section 509(a)(2).

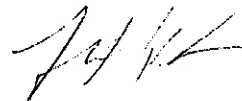

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Sincerely yours,

WHEREAS, UNA-USA is willing to grant a charter to Division upon the following terms and conditions.

WHEREAS, BWF, the parent organization of UNA-USA, has obtained from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") a group tax exemption according to which it is a central organization and certain UNA-USA division from around the United States are Section 501(c)(3) subordinate organizations.

WHEREAS, the IRS requires a central organization to exercise general supervision or control over its affiliated Section 501(c)(3) subordinate organizations covered under its group tax exemption to ensure that each affiliate's operations are, on an ongoing basis, consistent with the central organization's exempt purpose.

WHEREAS, Division wishes to be included, and BWF is willing to accept Division, as a Section 501(c)(3) subordinate member of BWF's group tax exemption.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and agreements contained in this Agreement and intending to be legally bound by the terms of this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Name of Division. The name of the Division is: UNA USA - Kentucky Div. S. VA
2. Purpose. Since World War II, through champions like Eleanor Roosevelt, Elliot Richardson, and Cyrus Vance, UNA and its chapters and divisions have built American support for the United Nations. In 1999, funded with Ted Turner's historic $1 billion gift, the United Nations Foundation, Inc. ("UNF") and BWF, its sister organization, began a world-class communication, education and advocacy movement focused on supporting the United Nations and its causes. Following the footsteps of UNA, UNF and BWF, the mission of UNA-USA is to inform, inspire and mobilize Americans to support the principles and vital work of the United Nations and to strengthen the United Nations system. UNA-USA encourages U.S. leadership to work constructively through the United Nations and encourages everyone to achieve the goals of the United Nations Charter. Through its chapters, divisions and programs, UNA-USA educates the American public about the invaluable work of the United Nations, raises funds and carries out local activities related to the United Nations, and recruits, engages, and retains members around the country.

3. Grant of Charter.

A. Charter. UNA-USA hereby grants to Division a charter to be a division of UNA-USA and authorizes Division, pursuant to the terms and conditions of Annex 1 of this Agreement, to use the name "United Nations Association of the United States of America," the acronym "UNA-USA" and the logo of UNA-USA. Consistent with the UNA-USA Commitment, this Agreement, and the charter granted to Division hereunder, shall continue in full force and effect for a minimum of five (5) years, and thereafter at UNA-USA's election, unless earlier revoked or suspended by UNA-USA, or surrendered by Division, pursuant to the terms of Section 10 hereof.

B. Territory. Division shall represent UNA-USA as UNA-USA's affiliate in (Insert city, region state or other geographical area Kentucky), (the "Territory"), pursuant to and in accordance with UNA-USA's mission and purposes as set forth in UNA-USA's governing documents, as may be amended from time to time by UNA-USA.

C. Authorized Activities. UNA-USA specifically authorizes Division, subject to Division's obligations under Sections 5(O) and (P) hereof, to conduct the following activities within the Territory: educational, advocacy, and fundraising programming and other such activities that are consistent with UNA-USA's mission to develop and strengthen the relationship between the U.S. and the UN, and to promote U.S. leadership to enhance international cooperation.

D. Membership. The term "Membership" refers to those individuals who are dues paying members of UNA-USA. Divisions shall only have members that are members in good standing of UNA-USA and who are from regions that are not serviced by UNA-USA chapters. Divisions exist to serve and assist chapters in the Territory as their principal purpose. The categories, levels and terms and conditions of UNA-USA membership shall be established by UNA-USA and shall be set forth in a UNA-USA Chapter Handbook developed by UNA-USA and approved by the Council of Chapters and Regions ("CCR") Steering Committee (the "Handbook").

E. Group Exemption. Provided that Division is an authorized Division of UNA-USA, Division shall be included in BWF's group tax exemption. Division certifies and agrees that, subject to the general supervision of UNA-USA and BWF, Division is and shall remain organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall comply with all legal requirements imposed upon a subordinate organization included in a group tax exemption, and shall timely provide BWF with any information reasonably requested by BWF to verify the Division's continued eligibility for inclusion in BWF's group tax exemption. The terms of this Section 3(E) shall not apply to Division if, on the Effective Date, Division is correctly recognized as an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code by virtue of a determination letter from the IRS.

9. Indemnification. Division shall indemnify, save and hold harmless UNA-USA, its affiliates, related entities, partners, officers, directors, employees, members, agents and representatives, and each of them, from and against any and all claims, actions, suits, demands, losses, damages, judgments, settlements, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), and liabilities of every kind and character whatsoever, arising out of or related to Division's breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation under this Agreement. The charter granted by UNA-USA to Division hereunder may be revoked by UNA-USA, suspended by UNA-USA for a stated period or indefinitely or surrendered by Division in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. UNA-USA's decision shall become final unless, within thirty (30) days of its receipt of written notice from UNA-USA, Division delivers to UNA-USA a written notice to appeal such determination. Upon the filing of such an appeal notice, Division shall have the opportunity to present its case, by written communication or in person, to the CCR Steering Committee pursuant to the applicable rules or procedures agreed upon by UNA-USA and the CCR Steering Committee, following which the CCR Steering Committee shall make a non-binding recommendation to the Executive Director of UNA-USA with respect to the potential revocation or suspension of the Division's charter. B. Surrender of Charter. Division may surrender its charter by delivering to UNA-USA written notice of its intention to do so no less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such surrender.

C. Effect. If the Charter is revoked, suspended or surrendered, or if this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason, the license in Section 6 shall be automatically revoked, Division shall be removed from BWF's group tax exemption, and the Division will immediately: (i) discontinue all use of the Intellectual Property; (ii) return to UNA-USA all Intellectual Property in the Division's possession, or destroy such materials at UNA-USA's request; (iii) take all actions directed by UNA-USA to ensure that its temporary or permanent disaffiliation from UNA-USA is adequately communicated to its members and the general public; and (iv) take any other action reasonably requested by UNA-USA or required by the Handbook, and BWF shall notify the Internal Revenue Service of Division's removal from the group tax exemption ruling.

11. Miscellaneous.

A. Entire Agreement. Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)

- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)

- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
