Doug – I need in writing (responding to this email is fine) that you will accept $500 from our office toward expenses related to the Belknap Festival. Once I have that from you, I can start getting the paperwork together.

Thank you

Adding Jasmine – someone took her off. Jasmine handles all of this. Yes, we're happy to cover $500 NDF for the Belknap Festival. We'll budget for it next year, too, but you guys still need to ask us in advance next time. Thanks very much.

Hi Alan –

Yes, $198 will be the balance due from you, once Councilman Coan confirms that they are in fact covering (and transferring) $500 from his office. Has that process been started, Brandon? Not sure how that works, exactly.

Thanks!

Doug.

Patrick,

Can you get Doug a check for the balance due after the City bills Brandon Coans office for the NDF grant money (see below) I thought Brandon's office was going to send $500 from an NDF grant so I think that leaves $198 due? Doug can you confirm the balance at this time? I think you guys indicated a 501 (c)(4) did not qualify for the charitable discount so we would owe the balance after the NDF Grant from Brandon Coan's office Correct?

Thanks.

Thanks for sending, Patrick. However, our rules only recognize 501 (c)(3) non-profits; the letter states that your designation is 501 (c)(4).

Has that determination been changed since the issuance of your IRS letter?

Also, there is a possibility that the status has been revoked or suspended – although, as the insert below states, it could have been reinstated. It is not uncommon for this to occur – and is easily remedied. The last official notice was March of this year.

Alan – the 25% discount ($174.5) leaves you a balance of $523.50. My office provides funding of up to $500 for District 8 events like the Belknap Festival. Nobody applied for such funding this year but: a) you should in the future; and b) if it's not too late and you haven't already paid the city's invoice then we'd be happy to try to cover $500 for you this year, leaving you a balance of $23.50.

Doug – can you please confirm that all Belknap Festival expenses are due and owing to the city and therefore easy for us to simply transfer NDF to cover? Thanks very much.

Yes, Alan - $400 is for the signs. It was included as part of the $698.00 that was listed in the memorandum of agreement. That is the minimum cost for signs. Of course, they can't predict the weather or the ability of cardboard signs to withstand a lot of rain.

Non-profits are given discount. However, you did not indicate that on your application (see screenshot of your app, below). That said, if you will send me a copy of your IRS letter of determination, I can adjust the fees, lowering them by 25%.

Thanks –

Doug,

I am a little confused, what is the additional $400 for the signs? As you know it rained all day on Friday and the signs did not make it through the festival. Are we being charged for the disposable signs? We are a non profit and would sure appreciate a break on this especially since the weather really hurt our attendance this year.
