

Sowing Seeds Of Faith

1300 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd.
Louisville, KY 40203

Da' Marrion Fleming

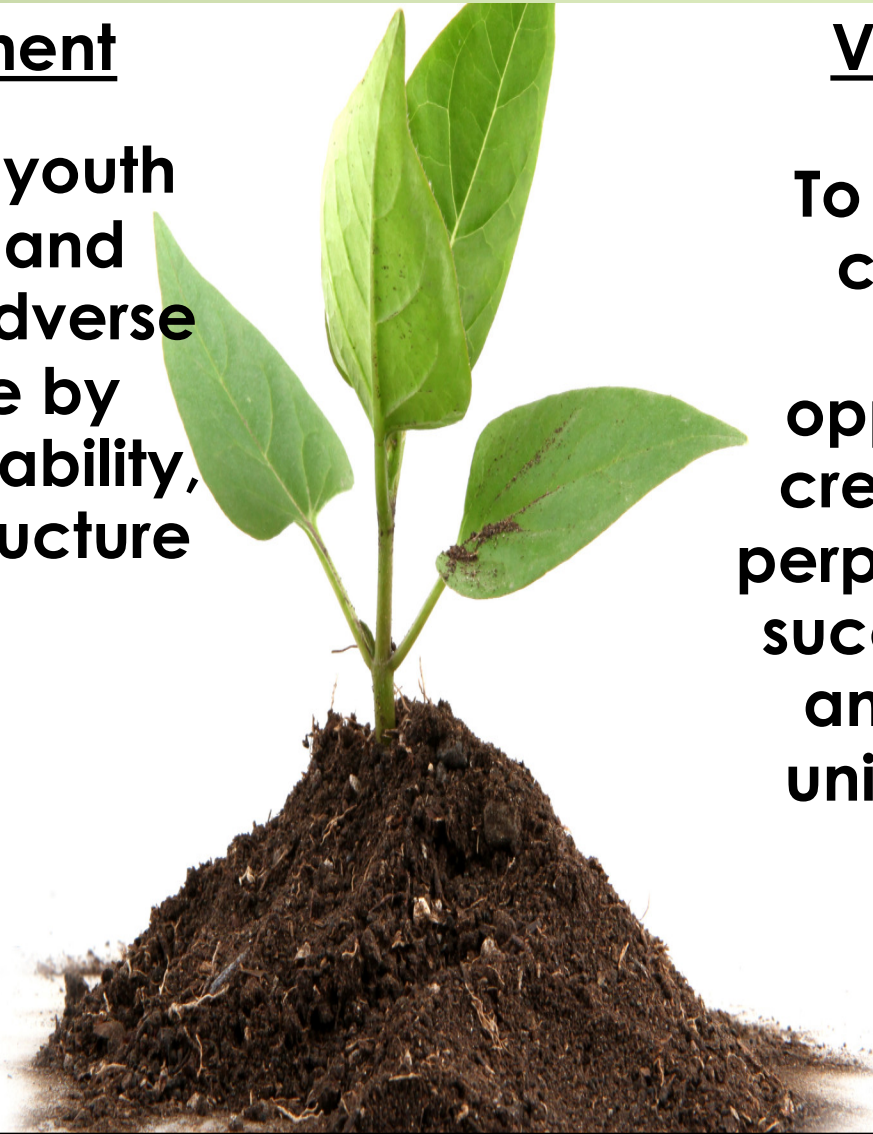

- Proud Louisville Native
 - Graduate from Louisville Male High
 - Graduate from Tennessee State
 - Graduate from the University of Louisville
- Son of a Single Mother
 - Oldest Brother is incarcerated

Tutoring. Summer Camp. Mentorship

Mission Statement

Prepare diverse youth academically and socially for the adverse moments in life by instilling accountability, expectations, structure and faith.

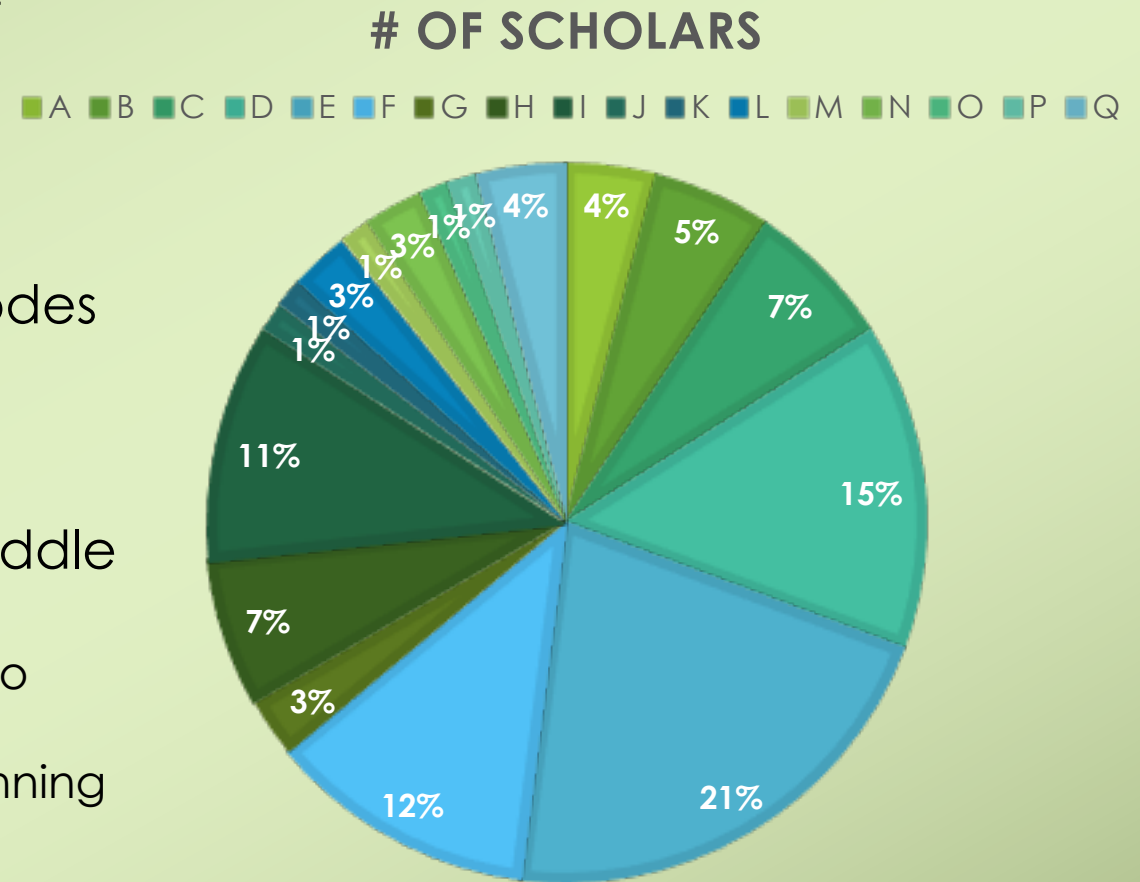

Vision Statement

To enrich the youth consistently with exposure and opportunity that will create a model that perpetuates a cycle of success in education and careers within unique educational institution.

Our Seeds and Program

- Largest school academic enrichment program in West Louisville
- Provides services to over 30 schools in JCPS
- Provides services to 15 different zip codes in Louisville and Southern Indiana
- 98% retention rate
- Average GPA increases by .5% for Middle and High School Students
 - Students are given Pre and Post exams to document progress
 - Students report their grades at the beginning and end of grading periods

Bridging the Gap & Summer Camp

Areas of Study

- Second Languages
 - Spanish
 - American Sign Language
- Physical Studies
 - Karate
 - Yoga
- Personal Care
 - Dental Hygiene with Park Duvall Hygienists
 - Health & Wellness
- STEM Labs
 - Coding
 - Chemistry Labs
- Home Economics
 - Sewing
 - Dance
 - Culinary

History & Future

- Founded 3 years ago
- Has moved to different locations: Central High, St. Stephens
- 1st year asking for this opportunity
- New Target area: Beecher Terrace & Village West