Neighbor's Concerns -

- Housing Crisis - The neighborhood needs homes for families to purchase. They want to see the house be sold to a family
 - Both properties do belong to a family, my family specifically. It is my priority to keep these homes in our family as my late father passed away in one of our homes and I am keeping my promise to continue their legacy and to create generational wealth for our lineage.
 - In addition to keeping these properties within the family, my grandmother was big on welcoming others into her home for solace, warmth, and comfort. Obtaining the conditional use permit and using our properties to welcome guests on both a short and long term basis will continue to honor my late grandmother while also giving us the opportunity to partner and support small businesses in Louisville which is a priority for my family as my grandparents purchased these homes before I was born and they were able to do so as they were business owners in Louisville themselves.
 - The housing market has changed in terms of securing affordable housing. A number of people do not qualify for an apartment because of their credit score or the income qualifications. We intend for our properties to solve this issue as we can welcome guests without the additional stress of a credit check and/ or income qualification process. To help offset vacancies, we will be offering extremely discounted rates for individuals that need housing accommodations.
 - We also intend to partner with:
 - Insurance companies to provide housing for displaced residents that need long-term accommodations due to floods, fires, etc.
 - Professionals traveling to Louisville for nursing work, conferences, and conventions
 - Responsible travelers visiting the area to experience all of the attractions that Louisville has to offer
 - Lastly, this is an amazing opportunity for people to see that the West End of Louisville is a beautiful place to visit. I would love the opportunity to help in changing the negative perception that people have with the area by showcasing all of the positives that the West End has to offer such as strong family and community values, beautiful nature to experience with all of the nearby parks and trails, and the rich history that was cultivated in the city of Louisville.

- Parties
 - We value and respect our properties, which we have the same expectation for all potential guests. We absolutely will not tolerate any parties; thus, there are a number of protocols in place to prevent this occurrence.
 - Specifically, we call out in our listing rules that no parties and/or events are allowed. Guests must read and agree to these rules by providing a codeword that we intentionally hide within our rules to ensure that the guest truly took the time to review our rules and regulations.

- Every guest (excluding underage children) must submit a copy of their ID so that we are aware of who has direct access to the property at all times. We also use this guest information to do additional security screening which includes using artificial intelligence to scan a potential guest's recent social media posts to ensure that there is no intention of throwing an event and/or party during their stay.
- We have invested in the following software to properly protect our property from unauthorized events and/ or parties:
 - Doorbell cameras on every exterior door to monitor who is coming in and out of the property at all times to ensure that there are no unregistered people on the property.
 - Indoor noise sensors that will alert us within minutes of sustained noise levels, not instantaneous noises like door slamming, so that we are notified if there are inconsiderate music and/or noise levels.
 - Remote alarm system with window sensors that we can control remotely to ensure that guests are not using non-traditional ways (such as opening a window) to sneak additional individuals into the unit.
 - Automated door locks that we can change the passcode after every guest and also during a stay in case we need to revoke access to the property due to rule infractions.
- Damage to Airbnb property and/or neighbors
 - There are rules and regulations in place that all guests must agree to before booking which includes no parties and/or events onsite, being respectful and considerate of both the neighborhood and surrounding neighbors, and reporting any accidental damages such as broken glass and/or spills.
 - Also, I have invested in hiring an experienced short-term rental strategist who is knowledgeable and experienced in obtaining short-term rental host liability insurance as well as Aircover which is a specific insurance program that protects property owners, their cleaning staff, and property in the rare event of any damages or stolen items.
- Excessive traffic in neighborhood
 - The neighbors expressed during our meeting that they are concerned about excessive traffic due to the short-term rental. According to the Kentucky occupancy guidelines, at no time shall more persons reside in the short term rental than two times the number of bedrooms plus two individuals except where the licensed property is in excess of two acres. Thus, I made sure to include the following rule regarding occupancy for both of my listings stating, "The maximum occupancy of this short-term rental unit is 2 adults / 2 children per bedroom. Please include all overnight guests on the reservation when booking. Guests not included on the reservation are not permitted on property and the reservation will be canceled if there are unauthorized guests on the property."

- Also, each property is only allowed 3 vehicles for each reservation to make sure that there are no parking issues as they have access to the driveway to safely park their vehicles.
