(v) To accept gifts, bequests, or devises of property of any kind which any person, firm or corporation may make to the Corporation, upon the terms, trusts, and conditions set forth in the deed of gift, will, or other instrument of writing, executed by any such donor or testator, but only for the purposes and upon the terms and conditions and with the powers set forth in these Articles of Incorporation;

(vi) To borrow money and give security therefor by pledging, mortgaging, or otherwise hypothecating any property it may own, or any interest it may have in such property;

(vii) To become a member of any other nonstock or nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of any state, or to become affiliated with any other organization of like character existing under the laws of any state; provided, however, that such corporation or organization is an exempt organization under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws);

(viii) to the extent permitted by law, to enter into contracts with any corporate trust company for the purpose of delegating to it the power, or employing it, to make investments on behalf of the Corporation, and to do such other things permitted by these Articles of Incorporation as the parties may agree upon, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but in furtherance thereof, to enter into trust agreements, irrevocable or otherwise, with any such corporate trustee, and therein to authorize any such corporate trustee to employ agents, attorneys, accountants, and others in connection with the performance of any duty or trust arising under such agreement; and

(ix) To do any and all things which the Corporation's Board of Directors may determine, consistent with the provisions hereof, to be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of which the Corporation is organized as herein set forth, to the extent that the doing of such act or thing is not inconsistent with the provisions of Chapter 273 of Kentucky Revised Statutes, or any other applicable law or statute of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws).

(3) Notwithstanding any provision heretofore stated herein, if at any time the Corporation is determined to be a private foundation or private operating foundation as defined in section 509 or section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or in corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, then:

(a) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or by corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(b) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4942(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or in corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(c) The Corporation shall not purchase nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or in corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(d) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or in corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

(e) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or in corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE IV

The Corporation shall have members. Classes of membership shall be as set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

If, at any time, this Corporation dissolves, the assets of this Corporation shall be applied and distributed as follows:

(1) All liabilities and obligations of this Corporation shall be paid and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefor;

(2) Assets held by this Corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with such requirements;

(3) Assets that have been received and are held by this Corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, scientific, literary, educational, and/or similar purposes, and that are not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance by reason of dissolution, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more corporations, societies, or organizations, organized under the laws of any state, that are exempt under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or under corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, or to the Federal government, or to the state or local government, for a public purpose, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted as provided by law; and

(4) Other assets if any, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more corporations, societies, or organizations, organized under the laws of any State, that are exempt under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or under corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, or to the Federal government, or to a State or local government, for a public purpose, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted as provided by law.

(5) Any assets not disposed of pursuant to the provisions of Article V set forth hereinabove shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located to such organizations, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and are exempt under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or under corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE VI

Provisions for the regulation of the affairs of the Corporation shall be set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation as duly adopted or from time to time altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors along shall have authority to manage and direct the corporation.

6 City, state, and ZIP code Louisville, KY 40291
7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
