OK Bill Hollander

Speaking of walking paths – well sort of. Jason and I just left a meeting with Story Ave folks. They are ready to move to next phase of this project. It includes basketball court removal and installation of a new court, parking lot, and hopefully new playground then walking path which we are going to install while they purchase materials. They are trying to raise remaining funds needed to complete this phase. Mac, John, Mark are all putting up personally, parks foundation is putting up $10k, David Jones has pledged $10k, we will have labor in this process and they were hoping CM Hollander would consider putting another $5k in. This next phase is about $70k total. We really are trying to make sure playground can be included. Please let us know your thoughts.
