COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE

ADDRESS REPLY TO
COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE
AND REFER TO

International Association of Lions Clubs,
332 South Michigan Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois.

Sirs:

Reference is made to evidence submitted for use in determining your status and the status of your districts and subordinate clubs for Federal income and employment tax purposes.

The records of the Bureau disclose that under date of December 20, 1926, you were held exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 231(9) of the Revenue Act of 1926 and the corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

It is the opinion of this office, based upon the evidence presented, that you and your districts and subordinate clubs appearing in four revised copies of the "Annual Directory Lions International", of August, 1940, are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(9) of the Internal Revenue Code and the corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

Accordingly, you and your districts and subordinate clubs appearing in the "Annual Directory Lions International" will not be required to file returns of income unless there is a change in the character, purposes, or method of operation of your organization or of your districts and subordinate clubs. Any such changes should be immediately reported by you to this Bureau in order that the effect of the changes upon your present exempt status may be determined.

You should furnish the Bureau annually on the calendar-year basis lists in quadruplicate, showing only the names and addresses of any districts and subordinate clubs which were chartered during the calendar year and the names and addresses of any districts and clubs which for any reason ceased to exist. Such annual lists should be accompanied by a statement sworn to by one of your principal officers as to whether or not the information heretofore submitted by you, and on which this ruling is based, is applicable in all respects to the new districts and clubs appearing on the lists, and should be forwarded so as to reach this office not later than February 15 of the following year.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
