Volunteers from The Wilder Park Association work to build relationships that foster a cohesive, safe, and friendly environment by providing pertinent and timely information regarding programs and services as well as contact information. Approximately nine hundred newsletters are printed and distributed by mail, e-mail, and home delivery eight to ten times per year to keep members of the neighborhood informed and to encourage membership and participation. The newsletters keep local, state, and federal representatives informed of the events and programs being sponsored by the Association. In sponsoring events such as the Easter Egg Hunt, Chili Cook-off, and Christmas party, The Wilder Park Association is demonstrating how proud we are of our community, city, and of the efforts of volunteers, police, and civic leaders. Community involvement and civic responsibility leads to safer, cleaner living conditions, which benefits the city as a whole. The Association is affiliated with the South Louisville Neighborhood Connection in partnership with the neighborhood associations of Beechmont, Oakdale, and Iroquois. Metro Police have an open invitation to all Wilder Park Association meetings and events to show support for their efforts to keep our community safe. The Association maintains a close working relationship with local, state, and federal representatives to assist the community with any questions or issues.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Annual Electronic Notice (Form 990-N) for Small Organizations FAQs: After You File

Will I get a confirmation that I filed Form 990-N, the e-Postcard?

No, you will not receive a confirmation e-mail. To check the status of your electronic filing, log into the Form 990 Electronic Filing System (e-Postcard) and go to the "Manage Form 990-N Submission" page. You'll see the status for each Form 990-N you submitted - indicating whether your form was accepted or rejected. If rejected, click on the "Submission ID" link for additional details.

If my information changes or I make a mistake, can I amend Form 990-N after submitting it to the IRS?

No, you cannot file an amended Form 990-N. You can make corrections or update your information when you file your next e-Postcard in a subsequent year.

How will the public get access to information we reported on Form 990-N?

The public can search for organizations that have filed an e-Postcard and view their filings using the Exempt Organizations Select Check tool. You can also download the entire database of e-Postcard filings on that site.

How can I print a copy of my Form 990-N?

When you electronically filed your 990-N, you were given an opportunity to print the form on the "Confirmation" page. If you didn't print your Form 990-N at that time, you can't print a new copy. The copy was for reference only; it can't be used to confirm IRS acceptance of your Form 990-N.

However, if your Form 990-N was accepted, your organization's electronic filing will be listed on Exempt Organizations Select Check. You can print that information for your records. Please allow up to four weeks for the EO Select Check system to display the latest filings.

I received a letter from the IRS about Form 990-N, but I am no longer with the organization and I am unable to forward the letter. What should I do?

Call Customer Account Services toll-free at 877-829-5500 and explain the situation.
