E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

The Jim King MUSCL Senior Wellness Center offers many benefits to our Seniors- both measurable and immeasurable. Keeping Seniors active both with body and mind is paramount. For the greater majority of our participants- the interactions at our Center is at the heart of their overall health and wellbeing. Even if a member is unable to attend an event-phone calls and visits will be made to ensure that "All is Well" for that person- Community is so important and with Seniors, their Community tends to shrink with the passage of time. Our Center provides another layer of important connectivity to Family, Friends, and Associates - Community.

For measurable outcomes- There are Sign-In sheets at each entrance and quarterly participation surveys. 100% of the Seniors will participate in a social activity of some sort within the year that benefits their mental health. 67% will participation in a physical activity at the center within the year.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

The Jim King MUSCL Senior Wellness Center has an ongoing relationship with the Bellarmine School of Nursing – they keep us up to date / inform us on current illnesses, vaccines, the importance of "Know your health numbers" and check Blood Pressure and Blood Sugar levels.

The Louisville Metro Office of Aging assists with two events a year – One is centered around 'Fall Prevention' and a Fan Fair to assist with higher utility bill reduction costs.

Walgreens sends a Pharmacy Tech once a year to administer Flu Shots.

We have a booth at the Holy Family Health Fair in the fall – to make our Neighbors aware of the MUSCL Senior Wellness Center & all the benefits – health, wellness & community that we offer.

Case No. 314173011E0

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period. This advance ruling period begins on the date of your inception and ends on the date shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods. Also, if you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your inception for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and donors may rely on the determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. If you submit the required information within the 90 days, grantors and donors may continue to rely on the advance determination until the Service makes a final determination of your foundation status. However, if notice that you will no longer be treated as a section 509(a)(1) * organization is published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, grantors and donors may not rely on this determination after the date of such publication. Also, a grantor or donor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(a)(1) * status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a)(1) * organization.

Letter 1045(DO) (Rev. 10-83)

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization which is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, because you are an organization of the type described in a section 509(a)(1) organization. Your exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Code is still in effect.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination until the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, a grantor or a contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(a)(1) status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, please keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown above.

Sincerely yours,

LESSEE shall have no claim against LESSOR for the value of any unexpired term of this Lease, but shall nonetheless have the right, if any, to claim and recover such value from the condemning authority. If such partial taking is not sufficiently extensive to render the demised LEASED PREMISES unusable for the business of LESSEE, LESSOR may, at its option, restore the demised Leased Premises to a condition comparable to its condition at the time of such condemnation and the rentals shall be adjusted to take into account the loss suffered as a result of the taking.
10. LESSOR'S Right of Entry: LESSOR shall have free access to the LEASED PREMISES to examine or exhibit the same to prospective tenants or purchasers, to ascertain that LESSEE is carrying out the terms, conditions and provisions hereof, and to make any needful repairs or alterations of the LEASED PREMISES which said LESSOR may deem necessary; provided, that such entry or repairs shall not unreasonably interfere with the conduct of LESSEE'S business.

11. Surrender of Possession: LESSEE shall, upon termination of this Lease by lapse of time or otherwise, surrender up and deliver the LEASED PREMISES and all improvements thereon in as good order and repair as when first received, reasonable wear and use thereof accepted.

LESSORS Remedies: If default be made in the payment of rent, or any part thereof, or in LESSEE'S observance or performance of any of the terms, conditions or agreements herein contained, LESSOR shall have the following remedies; provided that it has first given LESSEE written notice specifying such default (other than the nonpayment of rent as to which no notice shall be required) and LESSEE has failed to cure such default within ten (10) days after receiving such notice:
 - A. LESSOR may, at its option, immediately terminate this Lease as fully as though the term thereof had expired, by mailing of written notice to LESSEE, which shall be immediately binding upon LESSEE; and LESSOR or its agents may reenter the LEASED PREMISES, and LESSEE shall not thereby be released from the rent past due, or future rent, or from payment of damages for the breach of this Lease by LESSEE, or for payment of damages including reasonable fees for LESSOR'S attorney for breach of this Lease by LESSEE.
 - B. LESSOR shall also have the option, without terminating this Lease, to re-let the LEASED PREMISES for such term and at such rental and upon such other terms and conditions as LESSOR, in its sole discretion, may deem advisable. In the event that the rent received from such re-letting is less than the amount of rent agreed to be paid under this Lease, then LESSEE shall pay to LESSOR any such deficiency. Such deficiency shall be calculated and paid monthly. In addition, if repairs to the LEASED PREMISES and advertising are necessary in order to re-let the LEASED PREMISES, LESSEE shall pay to LESSOR the cost of said repairs and advertising.
 - C. LESSOR may use such other remedies as are available at law or in equity.
14. Waiver of Exemption: LESSEE hereby waives the right to claim any of their property as exempt from execution, distress warrant or attachment, or exempt by any law from the payment of debts, and all such property shall be held and considered subject to and responsible for the payment of the money agreed to be paid by LESSEE, and for the discharge of any liabilities created under this Lease.
