

LOUISVILLE METRO LAND DEVELOPMENT CODE

1.2.2 Definitions

Primary Residence (or Principal Residence) – A primary residence is the main home of an individual. An individual has only one primary residence at a time. If an individual owns and lives in just one dwelling unit, then that property is his or her primary residence. If an individual owns or lives in more than one dwelling unit, then he or she must apply a "facts and circumstances" test to determine which property is his or her primary residence. While the most important factor is where he or she spends the most time, other factors are relevant as well. The more of these factors that are true of a home, the more likely that it is a primary residence: Factors include, but are not limited to, the address listed on an individual's U.S. Postal Service address, Voter Registration Card, federal and state tax returns, driver's license, state identification card, and/or vehicle registration.

Short Term Rental - A dwelling unit that is rented, leased or otherwise assigned for a tenancy of less than 30 consecutive days duration, where no meals are served. This term does not include hotel or motel rooms, extended stay lodging facilities, bed and breakfast inns or boarding and lodging house rooms.

Short Term Rental Host - Any person who is the owner of record of residential real property, or any person who is a lessee of residential real property pursuant to a written agreement for the lease of such real property, who offers a dwelling unit, or portion thereof, for short term rental.

4.2.63 Short Term Rental of a dwelling unit that is not the primary residence of the host or the ~~s~~Short ~~t~~Term ~~r~~Rental of a condominium unit that is the primary residence of the host in a R-R, R-E, R-1, R-2, R-3, R-4, R-5, U-N, R-5A, R-5B, R-6, R-7, or R-8A district and Short Term Rental of any dwelling unit in a TNZD district

A short term rental of dwelling unit that is not the primary residence of the host or the short term rental of a condominium unit that is the primary residence of the host in a R-R, R-E, R-1, R-2, R-3, R-4, R-5, U-N, R-5A, R-5B, R-6, R-7, or R-8A district and a short term rental of any dwelling unit in a TNZD district may be allowed upon the granting of a Conditional Use Permit. In addition to any conditions of approval, a short term rental and its host shall meet the following requirements:

- A. The maximum stay for a guest shall be 29 consecutive days. A dwelling unit rented to the same occupant 30 consecutive days or more is not considered a short term rental.
- B. The dwelling unit shall be limited to a single short term rental contract at a time.
- C. At no time shall more persons reside in the short term rental than two times the number of bedrooms plus ~~four~~two individuals.
- D. The property on which the short term rental(s) is situated shall not be located closer than 600 feet (measured from nearest property line to nearest property line) to any property on which another approved short term rental that required a conditional use permit is situated.

- DE. The building in which the dwelling unit is located shall be a single-family residence, or duplex, or a condominium unit. If the short term rental is a condominium unit, the condominium unit must be the primary residence of the host. All conditional use permit applications for the short term rental of a condominium unit shall include evidence showing the applicable condominium association has taken action to approve the short term rental of the subject condominium. This evidence shall be provided in the form of minutes from an officially called meeting of the applicable condominium association board wherein all condominium owners were notified that short term rental of the subject condominium would be discussed and a majority of the board members voted in favor of permitting /allowing the short term rental of the subject condominium. In addition to notification required by Chapter 11 Part 5A, an applicant for a short term rental within a condominium shall provide notice of the Conditional Use Permit public hearing to all condominium owners within the association. Proof of notification shall be by way of affidavit. This provision shall not be waived or adjusted.
- EF. Food and alcoholic beverages shall not be served by the host to any guest.
- FG. Outdoor signage which identifies the short term rental is prohibited in residential zoning districts.
- GH. There shall be a sufficient amount of parking available for guests, as determined by the Board of Zoning Adjustment. The amount and location of parking shall be based on the land uses and density of the immediate vicinity.
- HI. The short term rental and host shall meet all additional requirements set forth in the Louisville Metro Code of Ordinances.
- IJ. If the property is subject to two (2) or more substantiated civil and/or criminal complaints within a twelve (12) month period, the Board of Zoning Adjustment Planning Director may revoke the approval pursuant to section 11.5A.6. When the Planning Director revokes an approval under this section, the owner and host shall be notified of the revocation and shall have thirty (30) days in which to request an appeal before the Board of Zoning Adjustment. If no appeal is requested, the revocation shall become final on the thirty-first (31st) day after the initial action by the Director. Civil complaints include, but are not limited to, reported violations of building, safety, property maintenance, nuisance, health and sanitation, fire, electrical, plumbing, and mechanical codes. Criminal complaints include, but are not limited to, reported drug activity, theft and criminal mischief.
- K. Prior to commencement of any short term rental on the subject property, the host shall register the short term rental pursuant to the Louisville Metro Code of Ordinances. If the short term rental is not registered within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the conditional use permit, the permit shall become null and void.
- L. An active registration for the short term rental, as required by the Louisville Metro Code of Ordinances, shall be maintained. No short term rentals may take place unless the registration is active and in the name of the current host and property owner. If the registration is not renewed and lapses for six months, or in the event of a change of ownership and/or host, a new registration is not issued within six months from the date of the change, the conditional use permit shall become null and void. In order to recommence short term rentals, a new conditional use permit must be granted if required by this Land Development Code.

4.3.23 Short Term Rentals

In a R-R, R-E, R-1, R-2, R-3, R-4, R-5, U-N, R-5A, R-5B, R-6, R-7, or R-8A district, a short term rental of dwelling unit that is the primary residence of the host is permitted by the Planning Director with special standards set forth in this section. In a OR, OR-1, OR-2, OR-3, OTF, C-N, C-R, C-1, C-2, C-3, C-M, EZ-1, W-1, W-2, PVD, PTD, or PRD district, any short term rental is permitted by the Planning Director with special standards set forth in this section.

- A. The maximum stay for a guest shall be 29 consecutive days. A dwelling unit rented to the same occupant for 30 consecutive days or more is not considered a short term rental.
- B. The dwelling unit shall be limited to a single short term rental contract at a time.
- C. At no time shall more persons reside in the short term rental than two times the number of bedrooms plus ~~four~~two individuals.
- D. ~~The building in which the dwelling unit is located shall be a single-family residence or duplex unless the dwelling unit is located on property zoned C-R, C-N, C-1, C-2, or C-3, or EZ-1 and the property meets all of the following criteria: 1. The property is within 200' of a TARC route; 2. The property is within .75 miles of a public park; and 3. The property is within one mile of a National Register District or Local Preservation District. This provision shall not be waived or adjusted.~~
- E. Food and alcoholic beverages shall not be served ~~or otherwise provided~~ by the host to any guest.
- F. Outdoor signage which identifies the short term rental is prohibited in residential zoning districts.
- G. There shall be a sufficient amount of parking available for ~~the host and guests~~, as determined by the Planning Director. The amount and location of parking shall be based on the land uses and density of the immediate vicinity. In the event that a complaint is filed concerning the lack of adequate parking, the Planning Director may require that the host submit a parking study to Planning & Design Services. If the parking study concludes that there is inadequate parking available to the host and guests, the host shall either a) increase the amount of parking to be sufficient or b) discontinue the short term rental use.
- H. The short term rental and host shall meet all additional requirements set forth in the Louisville Metro Code of Ordinances.
- I. ~~In order to maintain a registry of short term rentals, the host of the short term rental shall submit a notice of intent to commence a short term rental to the Office of Planning & Design Services in a form prescribed by the Planning Director. This form may be an online form that does not require the host to visit the office.~~

- ⌋. If the property is subject to two (2) or more substantiated civil and/or criminal complaints within a twelve (12) month period, the Planning Director may revoke the approval-registration. When the Planning Director revokes a registration under this section, the owner and host shall be notified of the revocation and shall have thirty (30) days in which to request an appeal before the Board of Zoning Adjustment. If no appeal is requested, the revocation shall become final on the thirty-first (31st) day after the initial action by the Director. Civil complaints include, but are not limited to, reported violations of building, safety, property maintenance, nuisance, health and sanitation, fire, electrical, plumbing, and mechanical codes. Criminal complaints include, but are not limited to, reported drug activity, theft and criminal mischief.
- J. In a case in which a) the primary residency of the host is in question due to conflicting documentation or b) inadequate documentation concerning the primary residency of the host is provided by the host, the Planning Director may request that the Board of Zoning Adjustment review the registration and make a determination related to the residency of the host.
