

Patricia Bautista-Cervera MD, MPH

Education

University of Louisville, Louisville, KY

Master of Public Health, May 2018

National and Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), Mexico City, Mexico

Doctor of Medicine, January 1990

National Institute of Pediatrics, Mexico City, Mexico

Pediatrics Residency, February 1993

National Institute of Pediatrics, Mexico City, Mexico

Allergy Fellowship, February 1994

Experience

La Casita Center (LCC), Louisville, KY

Academic Counsel "Campamento de la Alegría", June 2019-August 2019

- Planned and guided scientific based classes for children participating in the Summer Camp

Community Liaison, August 2019-Present

Health Empowerment Coordinator, March 2020-Present

- Organized a vaccination with the KY Department of Public Health aimed at updating vaccination records for migrant children in LCC's community
- Created and participated in health promotion talks
- Called clients, who had been referred by LMPHW and those who called LCC, to provide accompaniment after COVID-19 diagnosis, sharing medical information and guidelines on what to do while sick
- Researched and created social media health promotion videos, in Spanish, relating to the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as others relating to disease prevention and other health topics
- Participated with LMPHW and other health organizations in mobile and onsite COVID-19 and flu vaccine clinics

Compassionate Schools Program, Louisville, KY

Project Assessor, August 2018- June 2020

- Participated in the data collection of the evaluation part of the project, while visiting JCPS elementary and middle schools

Kentuckiana Allergy and Clinical Immunology, Louisville, KY

Physician Shadow, September 2005- January 2018

- Practiced allergy medicine under supervision as a visiting physician.
- Talked to patients, listened to them, explored them, and discussed each case with the responsible attending

Languages

- Native Fluency in Spanish

