A motion was made by Committee Member Piagentini, seconded by Committee Member Hollander, that this Resolution be recommended for approval.

The following spoke to this item:

- Mike Penick, Public Works
- Anne Scholtz, Jefferson County Attorney's Office
- Chair George
- Committee Member Hollander
- Vice Chair Benson

Committee Member Piagentini requested that items 1-7 be considered and discussed at the same time, and the request was granted without objection.

Committee Member Piagentini stated that this is in Council Member Engel's District and he is in support of the condemnation.

The following was discussed:

- Currently this road does not exist so it would be called New Cooper Chapel Road
- On the southside of New Cooper Chapel Road there will be a bike lane and a shaded pathway
- On the northside of New Cooper Chapel Road there will be a bike lane and a sidewalk
- This project consists of 72 parcels that run from Beulah Church Road to Bardstown Road
- Seven of the property owners do not favor the project, which are those represented in items 1-7
- Jefferson County Attorney's Office sent letters to each homeowner informing them that the case has been referred to them for condemnation
- Question about the cost and time for the condemnation
- 48 out of 72 homes were acquired without filing suit, and some are in negotiations
- Concerns about whether Metro Government offers a fair price for the property
- There was one counter-offer by a property owner of $300,000 over the offer Public Works made, and it was rejected

The motion carried by a voice vote and the Resolution was sent to the Consent Calendar.
