SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

MOLO Village Mission Statement

To transform, empower and renew the lives of those we serve through education, community service and healthy living.

VILLAGES:

The Restored Village- Jefferson County Jail located one mile from MOLO:St. Peter's and incurs an estimated $15 million per year incarcerating residents from Beecher Terrace. MOLO supports the recently released who are at risk of alcohol substance abuse and/or Russell residents who would not otherwise have access to neighborhood support groups by managing three weekly alcohol and substance abuse recovery group serving approximately 600 people per week including ex-offenders residing in halfway houses within the Russell community. MOLO also offers four 12-week session of re-entry classes which focus on life skills training including goal setting and navigating challenges including reconnecting with families and finding employment and housing. This revised program is anticipated to serve 300 people per year. This program was funded by UCC Neighbors in Need, First Christian Church and PNC Foundation Grants.

The Isiduku Village- MOLO's senior programs provide a local and safe place for seniors with services that support health and longevity in partnership with the Louisville Metro Department of Community Services to provide nutritious lunches, opportunities for exercise, and social and cultural activities to Russell seniors. Program serves an average of 20 seniors per day, four days per week. Meals are provided by the Senior Nutrition Office of Louisville and staffed is staffed by volunteers and activities instructors that are provided stipends. This program is funded by in-kind labor and church contributions/donations.

The Empowered Village- 2 programs: Credit & Wealth Building and The Village@ West Jefferson. In 2016, MOLO began a partnership with St. Louis based Justine Peterson, to provide credit counseling and wealth building services to Russell area residents. The program includes helping participants open a bank account & obtaining secured credit cards account (the first for most) in order to (re) build credit. This initiative includes a $200,000 fund for small credit building loans. The program, attracts an average of 12 people each week and will help prepare Russell residents for the new homeownership opportunities that will be created as a result of revitalization. The program is staffed by a paid financial counselor and is supported through a grant from JP, in-kind supervision and a small loan fee. The Village@ West Jefferson development project is supported by CB&LF, who provides technical assistance for this redevelopment project through consultants (AIM Development Group).

The Future Village- The MOLO Annual Festival is held prior to the start of each school year. In addition to providing school supplies, free healthcare screenings provided by various health agencies, vendor booth displays, live entertainment, and games for the children and adults. Over 500 youth participate in programming activities each year. Program is staffed by volunteers who receive stipends and in-kind labor for planning and coordination. MOLO receives a grant to help support this program.

The Healthy Village- Offers exercise, health, nutrition and cooking classes; workshops and information through various community partnerships. Events have been sponsored through the Mayor's Healthy Hometown Grant initiative, the Louisville Health Department, the Volunteers of American and the Kentucky Aids Alliance.

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

The MOLO Village believes a community event like this is necessary because: (1) It is a fun, unique way to build community. (2) It can be enjoyed by people of all ages. (3) It raises public awareness of community and organizations that maintain them. (4) It is a fun way to educate people about their community and resources. (5) It promotes and encourages healthy lifestyles which improve community vitality and longevity. (6) It contributes to economic development. (7) It exposes people to a variety of affordable activities. (8) It is newsworthy and draws positive media attention to the sponsoring community and organizations as well as all participants and sponsors. (9) It identifies volunteers and creates a new pool of engaged citizens. (10) It gives visibility to local businesses. (11) It involves individual in something they have not done before.

There is a monthly planning meeting held at St. Peter's UCC with the officers of the MOLO Village as well as event coordinators and volunteers.

At the conclusion of the festival, an assessment of this event will be reviewed for improvement and adjustments for participation, security and effectiveness in building community.

Input will be sought from community officials, local community leaders and businesses for continued and future planning and partnerships.

Success will be determined through daily participation through participation sheets of the youths involvement in specific youth activities.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

St. Peter's United Church of Christ-the church's vision is to plant and cultivate seeds of necessity. In our community through spiritual guidance, while continually seeking ways and opportunities to educate, inform and empower the congregation and community to understand, identify and to be effective advocates for social justice policies that better their individual lives and the world in which we live. The church currently host 3 Alcoholic Anonymous groups that serve over 600 men and women weekly. MVCDC directly supports this mission through participation and outreach.

(1.) Community Transitional Housing - a 300 resident halfway house for men leaving the prison system. Many of the residents have received spiritual direction and guidance for involvement with welcoming St Peters faith community. The residents also volunteer their time to provide Dare to Care Food Distribution and maintenance of the church grounds. MVCDC provides mentoring, life skills training and holistic education.

(2.) Mission Behind Bars and Beyond - a Christian led re-entry and life skills program formed to reconnect formerly incarcerated persons with positive community role models to assist in their transition from prison to community, thereby reducing recidivism and demonstrates an important role in walking with those leaving prisons. MVCDC provides mentoring, life skills training and holistic education.

(3.) Dare to Care Food Pantry-We have distributed food to over 13,000 people in 2017 and 160,000 pounds of foods. Residents of CTS and the Beecher community volunteer their time to assist in this mission. MVCDC provides referrals of volunteers and food support.

(4.) Louisville Metro Community Services - MVCDC participates in the Senior Nutrition Program to provide meals to senior adults and opportunities for socialization to senior adults ages 60 and over.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

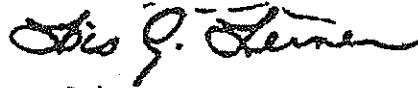

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

Letter 947 (DO/CG)

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

Sincerely,

Lois G. Lerner
Director, Exempt Organizations

ARTICLES OF CORRECTION TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF MOLO VILLAGE CDC CO.

Pursuant to the provisions of KRS 273.2523, Molo Village CDC Co. (the "Corporation") hereby submits the following Articles of Correction:

1. These Articles of Correction provide a more detailed and complete description of the charitable purposes and operation of the Corporation than the original Articles of Incorporation filed with the Kentucky Secretary of State on February 7, 2011:

a. The introduction paragraph of the Articles of Incorporation merely provided a general purpose for, "forming a non-profit corporation in Kentucky pursuant to KRS Chapter 273."

b. The Articles of Incorporation omitted all provisions pertaining to the operation of the Corporation as a non-profit corporation.

2. Attached hereto as Annex A and made a part hereof is a corrected version of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, which corrects the errors referred to in sub-parts "a" and "b" of these Articles of Correction.

3. The Articles of Incorporation attached hereto as Annex A replace, in their entirety, the Articles of Incorporation filed with the Kentucky Secretary of State on February 7, 2011.

These articles have been duly executed this 2nd day of March, 2011, by the following party:

MOLO VILLAGE CDC CO.

By Jamesetta F. Ferguson, Director

ANNEX A

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF MOLO VILLAGE CDC CO.

1. Name. The name of the Corporation shall be "Molo Village CDC Co."
2. Purposes. The Corporation is organized under Chapter 273 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the Corporation's purpose stated in this Article 2.
3. Corporate Affairs. The following provisions shall regulate the affairs of the Corporation:
 - (a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Corporation's members or shareholders, if any, or to any other private person, including without limitation any member of the Board of Directors or any officer of the Corporation, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles.
 - (b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
 - (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by any organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
 - (d) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, its affairs shall be wound up and its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not otherwise disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Kentucky, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as that court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(e) The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(f) The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(g) The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(h) The Corporation will not make any investments in a manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(i) The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

4. Registered Office and Agent. The street address of the Corporation's registered office is St. Peter's UCC, 1225 W. Jefferson Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40203. The name of the registered agent at that address is Mark Woodard.

5. Principal Office. The mailing address of the Corporation's principal office is St. Peter's UCC, 1225 W. Jefferson Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40203.

6. Limitation of Director Liability.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by Article 6(b) below, no director of the Corporation shall have any personal liability to the Corporation or its members, if any, for monetary damages for breach of his duties as a director.

(b) Nothing in Article 6(a) above shall be deemed or construed to eliminate or limit the liability of a director for:

(i) Any transaction in which the director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interests of the Corporation;

(ii) Acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the director to be a violation of law;

(iii) Any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

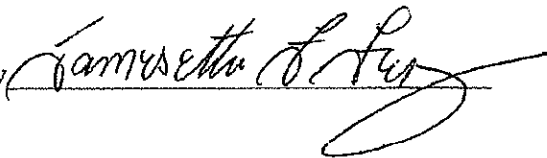

7. Indemnification of Executive Officers and Directors. Each person who is or becomes an executive officer or director of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation and advanced expenses incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty to the Corporation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which directors or officers may be entitled under any agreement or otherwise.

8. Initial Directors. The number of directors constituting the Corporation's initial board of directors shall be three (3). The name and mailing address of each of the individuals who are to serve as the Corporation's initial directors are as follows:

OF MOLO VILLAGE CDC CO.

1. Board of Directors

1.1 Number, Election and Term.

(a) The number of directors constituting the Corporation's Board of Directors shall not be less than 3 or more than 10, the exact number to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The number of Directors constituting the initial Board shall be 3.

(b) Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting or special meeting of the Corporation's Board of Directors by a majority vote of those directors present at the meeting. The term of office of a director shall be set by the Corporation's Board and such director shall serve until his or her successor is elected and has accepted his or her election. A director whose term is expiring shall be entitled to vote in the election of his or her successor. A director shall accept his or her election by either (1) indicating his or her acceptance in writing, or (2) being present and acting as a director at a regular or duly called special meeting of the Board of Directors.

1.2 Vacancies. The office of a director shall become vacant if the director (a) dies, (b) resigns by a writing signed by the director and delivered to the Corporation, or (c) is removed by a majority vote of the Corporation's Board of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in an office of a director may be filled for the unexpired term by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors even if then less than a quorum of the entire Board of Directors.

1.3 Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time within or without the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at a date, time and place designated by the Board of Directors. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times and places as may be fixed by the Board of Directors, and may be held without further notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President of the Corporation or by not less than one-third of the directors. Notice of the time and place of any special meeting shall be served upon by telephone, U.S. Mail, telegraph, electronic mail or facsimile to each director at least forty-eight hours before the time of the meeting. Notice of any Special meeting delivered via the U.S. mails will be sent to the director at their address appearing on the Corporation's records. Notice of any meeting of directors may be waived either before or after the meeting by any director. Attendance of any director at any such meeting without protesting the lack of proper notice shall be deemed to be a waiver of that notice.

1.4 Quorum. A majority of the directors then in office shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

2. Officers

2.1 Offices. The Corporation may appoint a President, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation may also have such additional officers and assistant officers as the Board of Directors may deem necessary, all of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Directors or chosen by an officer or officers designated by the Board of Directors. The term of office of an officer shall be set by the Board of Directors, and such officer shall serve until his or her successor is appointed and has accepted his or her appointment, but any officer or agent may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever the Board of Directors determines that the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

2.2 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation. Subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, the President shall have general charge and authority over the business of the Corporation. The President shall have such other duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time assign.

2.3 Vice President(s). The Vice President (or, if there be more than one Vice President, the Vice Presidents in the order of their seniority of election) shall perform the duties of the President in the President's absence. The Vice President(s) shall have such other powers and duties as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time assign.

2.4 Secretary. The Secretary shall (a) issue notices of all meetings for which notice is required to be given, (b) keep the minutes of all meetings, (c) have general charge of the corporate record books, and (d) have such other powers and duties as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time assign.

2.5 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall (a) be the fiscal and disbursing agent of the Corporation, (b) have the custody of all monies and securities of the Corporation, (c) keep adequate and correct accounts of its financial affairs, (d) deposit the funds of the Corporation in the name of the Corporation in such depositories as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time, and (e) have such other powers and duties as the Board of Directors or the President may from time to time assign.

2.6 Authority to Sign. Except as otherwise specifically provided by the Board of Directors, checks, notes, drafts and contracts of the Corporation, and any other instruments authorized by the Board of Directors, shall be executed and delivered on behalf of the Corporation by the President or the Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

3. Committees of the Board of Directors

3.1 Board Committees. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may designate from its members an Executive Committee or other committee or committees, each consisting of two or more members, which committee or committees, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors except as prohibited by law.

3.2 Advisory Committees. In addition to any committees established pursuant to Section 3.1 above, the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may designate and appoint one or more advisory committees, each consisting of three or more members (who need not be directors of the Corporation), to advise and consult with the Board of Directors as to matters set forth in such resolution.

3.3 Procedure. Unless the Board of Directors provides otherwise, a majority of the members of any committee, including the Executive Committee, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of that committee and the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee. Action may be taken without a meeting by any committee, including the Executive Committee, by a written consent signed by all of the committee members. Each committee, including the Executive Committee, may prescribe its own rules for calling and holding meetings and its method for procedure, and shall keep a written record of all actions taken by the committee.

4. Indemnification of Directors, Officers, and Employees

4.1 Generally. The Corporation shall indemnify each person who may be indemnified (individually an "Indemnitee" and collectively the "Indemnitees") pursuant to KRS 273.171(14) (the "Indemnity Statute"), as amended from time to time (or any successor provision thereto), to the fullest extent permitted by the Indemnity Statute. In each and every situation in which the Corporation may do so under the Indemnity Statute, the Corporation hereby obligates itself to indemnify the Indemnitees to the fullest extent permitted by the Indemnity Statute, and in each case, if any, in which the Corporation must make certain investigations on a case-by-case basis before providing indemnification, the Corporation hereby obligates itself to pursue such investigations diligently, it being the specific intention of these bylaws to obligate the Corporation to indemnify each Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by Kentucky law from time to time. Except as otherwise made mandatory by Kentucky law, no Indemnitee shall be liable to the Corporation in connection with any actions or inactions entitling the Indemnitee to indemnification under the Indemnity Statute unless it is established that the Indemnitee's actions or inactions constituted willful misconduct or wanton or reckless disregard for human rights, safety, or property in the performance of the Indemnitee's duties to the Corporation.

4.2 Indemnification Agreements. Without limiting the generality of the indemnification obligation undertaken by the Corporation in Section 4.1 above, the Corporation shall at all times indemnify and hold each of its directors and officers harmless to the fullest extent provided by any written indemnification agreement between the Corporation and the director or officer.

Initials

4.3 Other Rights. The indemnification provisions contained in this Section 4 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any statute, article, bylaw, agreement, vote of disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in that person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, and shall inure to the benefit of the person's heirs, personal representatives, and legatees.

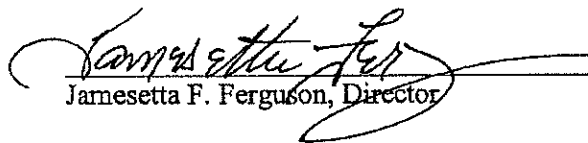

4.4 Acquisition of Indemnity Insurance. By action of the Board of Directors, notwithstanding any interest of any director in the action, the Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, in such amounts as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in any such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or would be required to indemnify against the liability under the provisions of this Section 4.

5. Amendments

These bylaws may be amended, altered, repealed, replaced, or restated only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Corporation's Board of Directors.

MOLO VILLAGE CDC CO.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

ARTICLE I

Purpose

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect Molo Village CDC Co.'s ("Organization") interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

ARTICLE II

Definitions

1. Interested Person. Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

a. an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,

b. a compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or

c. a potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

ARTICLE III

Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.

a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

ARTICLE IV

Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

ARTICLE V

Compensation

a. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

b. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

c. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

ARTICLE VI

Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

- a. has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,
- b. has read and understands the policy,
- c. has agreed to comply with the policy, and
- d. understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax exempt purposes.

ARTICLE VII

Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

ARTICLE VIII

Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.
