CASE SUMMARY / BACKGROUND

The applicant proposes to conduct short-term rental of a residential structure located in an R-6 Multi-Family Residential Zoning District and a Traditional Neighborhood Form District. As the dwelling units are not the primary residence of the host, a Conditional Use Permit is required.

The site is located on the east side of Vine Street between E. Breckinridge Street and Highland Avenue. It is adjoined by single-family residential uses. The applicant lives in the residence next door.

PVA lists the existing structure as residential duplex. According to the applicant, each of the two units has one bedroom. LDC regulations permit up to six guests are permitted in each unit.
