SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

Toonerville Trolley Neighborhood Association exists to promote the improvement and profile of the sub-neighborhood area bounded First, Hill, Floyd and St. Catherine Streets, all within the historic district of Old Louisville as designated by Metro Louisville and the National Park Service. The Association seeks to improve all property (single family, multi-family, commercial, religious and public) and public spaces, and to improve the quality of life for residents, visitors and tourists to the area. It is the largest neighborhood association within the Old Louisville Historic / TMZD District, represents a very wide socio-economic span, and features both small and large historic homes, multi-family complexes, historic religious structures, and public spaces. Public Spaces within this neighborhood include Metro Parks' Toonerville Trolley Park and Fort George. Toonerville Park is the second largest public space in Old Louisville, and contains numerous significant features: the city's only urban dog run; tennis courts; basketball courts; and new playground equipment, all bounded by a newly-configured and widened alleyway laid with artistic brick masonry. The Association's own "Fort George," is a parklike setting open to the public in the 1200 Block of Floyd Street, fronted by a traditional iron fence, featuring a large lighted memorial American Flag, and containing memorials to the Revolutionary War officer who originally settled the property. The Association has just completed a new fencing project for the space, and continues to pursue professional-level historical and archaeological surveys of this property, and plans a series of future public events for the space.

The Association's vision is to make the Toonerville Neighborhood a desirable residential, commercial and public space area, maintaining the traditional confines of the historic homes, buildings and public spaces within the neighborhood. This Toonerville Neighborhood has historically faced more challenges that other sections of Old Louisville, including property maintenance, maintenance of public spaces, street crime and vandalism.

The Association's primary services have included investment into the park spaces (purchasing, improving, maintaining and promoting the historic "Fort George" property; placing improvements into the Metro Parks Toonerville Trolley Park; and into public spaces of the neighborhood (tree planting, sidewalk, alley and public area cleaning)).

This year, Springfest has been re-visioned, with the enthusiastic support of Metro Parks and others, as an expose' of the public space of the Toonerville Neighborhod, in a more manageable size and time-frame. The Association envisions Springfest as a kick-off to a whole season of smaller, self-funded public events in the park areas. To achieve this, the festival event will be held within the confines of the Toonerville Trolley Park and Fort George. The Association believes that by promoting and exposing the significant city and Association investments in these public areas, the profile and desirability of this portion of the neighborhood will be significantly raised in the eye of residential and commercial investors, and visitors and tourists. Property values and crime rates are already changing positively in this area, and must continue. Public events within the public spaces of the neighborhood promote a "broken window" approach to reducing crime and vandalism: when wrongdoers see the space as clean and well-used, it is not attractive as a place for anti-social behavior.The overall value of Old Louisville to the City of Louisville reaches well beyond its mere residential status, attracting interest worldwide in this largest contiguous collection of Victorian properties in the U.S.

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

This Event proposes to help promote a feeling of inclusion of ALL residents of the Neighborhood, promote the understanding of the importance of The Neighborhood Association as the Voice of the Neighborhood,Community Building through having fun together, offering the Neighborhood children a fun time in their neighborhood while meeting other children in the Neighborhood, offering the Parents of children to network for the purpose of building relationships for the Parents of Neighborhood Children, offering the participants the opportunity to meet Elected Officials who serve the Neighborhood and to have fun in our Neighborhood. In the long run, positive, large-scale public utilization of the public spaces of this area will foster a feeling of ownership and togetherness, and amplify negative incentives toward improper activity like graffiti, open air drug use, vandalism and more serious crimes.

These benefits will be measured primarily by attempting a count of attendance at the event. We will also seek feedback from participants and attendees. We hope to measure good participation from all areas of Old Louisville. If the Kids have FUN in the KidsZone this will be a positive measurement. Also, if the Association hosting the Event earns funds to go toward the development of a safe, beautiful and friendly Neighborhood, then a positive outcome is achieved.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

We are working with The Old Louisville Neighborhood Council for promotion and advertisement of the Event.
We are Partnering with Kosair Charities in funding the KidsZone and promoting the Event.
We are Partnering with Old Louisville Businesses in funding the Event and promoting the said Businesses.
We are Connecting with ALL the neighborhood Associations in Old Louisville in order to Showcase the Neighborhood and help with All working together.
We are reaching out to other Neighborhoods in Louisville Metro in order to promote the Event.

For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.
