SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

Mission Statement

Paws with Purpose is dedicated to providing highly skilled assistance dogs as partners to children and adults with physical disabilities or other special needs in the greater Louisville, Kentucky area.

Vision Statement

Paws with Purpose vision is to foster independence and understanding in our community through compassionate advocacy and the power or the human-canine bond.

Paws with Purpose is the only Kentucky-based assistance dog program that is fully accredited by Assistance Dogs International (ADI). ADI is a coalition of non-profit assistance dog organizations that sets standards for training and placing assistance dogs, as well as providing education to the public and advocating for persons with disabilities. ADI also provides a comprehensive accreditation system to ensure that its members meet the high standards expected of assistance dog programs. In addition to maintaining standards that its members must adhere to, ADI provides its accredited members with informational resources and networking opportunities to provide them with support and the most current developments in our field.

Paws with Purpose has a collaborative partnership with the Kentucky Department of Corrections. In this program, our dogs are trained at the Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women (KCIW) during the week, by a select group of inmates who receive ongoing instruction from our training staff and volunteers. The inmates in the program are responsible for all aspects of the dogs' training, grooming and general care. Volunteer handlers spend each weekend socializing the dogs and reinforcing the training that the inmate handlers are working on.

Our goal is to place at least three to four dogs each year as assistance dogs or facility dogs to work with individuals with disabilities in the greater Louisville, Kentucky area. In 2017, we completed four placements, including two placements of assistance dogs with children on the autism spectrum, one assistance dog with an adult with mobility limitations, and a facility dog partnered with a psychiatrist whose practice has an emphasis on pediatric and adolescent behavioral mental health.

In 2018, we are in the process of completing the placement of three dogs with veterans with combat-related post-traumatic stress, and one dog with an adult with a mobility disability. We are working with Norton Healthcare and hope to place three facility dogs by the end of 2018 at their area hospitals.

SECTION 4 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND PAID STAFF

Board Member	Term End Date
Sheilah Abramson-Miles	December 2020
Sue Wettle	December 2019

Describe the Board term limit policy:

The term of office for a Director shall be two years with the possibility of re-election for four additional terms of two years each. No member of the Board of Directors shall be elibible for nomination for re-election to the Board if the member has been absent from three consecutive regular meeting of the Board without having provided orally or in writing an excuse for his or her absence with an officer of the Board of Directors. Term of office shall run from July 1to June 30. However, the Directors shall hold office until their successors are elected. If a new member of the Board is elected at a time other than the June Board meeting, to enlarge the Board of to fill a vacancy, the new member will serve the remainder of the term in progress, or the term of the person who has been replaced, and may then stand for re election at the next regularly scheduled election in the same manner as any other Board member.

SECTION 5 - PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

Our placement program in ongoing. We place service dogs at no cost to children with autism, veterans with combat PTS, and disabled children and adults. Our dogs are trained for two years before being placed with a client.

We have found that the placement process for autism spectrum applicants is an extremely time-consuming and highly individualized effort by our trainers. The needs and abilities of each applicant are unique and the process must include training not only the child, but appropriate family members, teachers and/or care givers. Generally we cannot work with these clients in group class settings as we do with adult clients. We must also devote extensive effort to identifying a dog whose temperament and skills will meet the needs of each individual child. The bonding process between dog and child is more time consuming for a child on the autism spectrum than when placing an assistance dog with someone with a mobility limitation. Training must be conducted in the home, school and every other venue that the child attends. The expansion of our services to applicants on the autism spectrum will require considerable additional time from our Training Coordinator and Training Assistants during the placement process.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

The funding will be spent on updated computers for the three staff members and a volunteer client services coordinator. Two staff members are currently using personal computers for work.

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

As part of the placement training, we hold some group classes for applicants for classroom instruction on training concepts, canine learning theory, canine health and the basics of living and working with an assistance dog. However, the bulk of the placement training is conducted in individualized one-on-one sessions with each client. This customized training consists of at least 120 hours and takes place in the client's home, school or place of work, and multiple public venues that the client may frequent with his or her assistance dog partner. The placement process is very time consuming as each client's placement training usually requires a team of two trainers to work with the client/dog team over a period of months.

Our work with each client does not end when the placement is finalized. An essential aspect of the service we provide to our clients is the ongoing follow up support that PwP provides to every placement team throughout the life of their partnership. This means that if our client experiences a change in their needs, health status or other circumstances, we will work with them to train new skills for their canine partner, or help them adapt the skills that they already have, to new circumstances or environments. As a locally based organization that serves clients in and around the greater Louisville area, we are able to provide this ongoing support on a personal and individualized basis.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

We partner with the Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women. All dogs are trained during the week at KCIW until they are placed with a client.

Other community partnerships are:

- a. Outreach and networking with organizations that serve special needs children: We had an exhibit at the Walk-N-Roll for Spina Bifida of Kentucky which led to an invitation to do monthly therapy dog visits at their pediatric clinic. We also participate yearly in the autism day camp at Camp Hi Ho sponsored by Norton's Children's Hospital. We have had meetings with the Molly Johnson Foundation which assists families with special needs children; members of the Foundation are interested in connecting PWP with children and their families who could benefit from an assistance dog. We also participated in the Disabilities Resource Fair at the Home of the Innocents.
- b. Special School Projects: PWP has partnered with classrooms or grade levels at elementary schools for special projects, such as Goshen Elementary First Grade class' Gator Doodle Factory Project.
- c. University of Louisville's Resilient Family Project with Hotel Louisville: PWP has made our therapy dogs and puppies in training available for visits with families at Hotel Louisville;
- d. School and Community Presentations: PWP makes presentations to schools, libraries, camps, scout troops and community organizations to provide education, awareness and understanding of the challenges faced by people with physical disabilities in our community, and the role of an assistance dog in the life of someone with a mobility limitation. The number of children participating in these presentations range from 50 to several hundred eager learners! Examples this year include a presentation to the students participating in the Leadership Program at Sacred Heart Model School and a presentation to students at University of Louisville's School of Public Health.
- e. Additional outreach to children in the community: In 2016, PWP placed an assistance dog, Gabby, with Sarah Sauer, a Crusade volunteer and survivor of a childhood brain tumor. Sarah and Gabby are very active in outreach programs to children. They attend year-round mentoring visits with children at St. Joseph's Children's Home and at Sunrise Children's Services program for foster children. Sarah and Gabby also participate in the Kosair Children's "Kids with Cancer" picnic.

Dear Applicant:

Our letter dated June 2004, stated you would be exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and you would be treated as a public charity, rather than as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, you are classified as a public charity under the Code section listed in the heading of this letter. Since your exempt status was not under consideration, you continue to be classified as an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization, provides detailed information about your rights and responsibilities as an exempt organization. You may request a copy by calling the toll-free number for forms, (800) 829-3676. Information is also available on our Internet Web Site at www.irs.gov.

If you have general questions about exempt organizations, please call our toll-free number shown in the heading.

Please keep this letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Choi

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

· Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U S, person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

Paws With Purpose

3960 Gilman Avenue ~ Louisville, KY ~ 40207

Article VIII: No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to it's members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) of any political statements on behalf of or in opposition to and candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Article IX: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

In witness whereof, we hereunto subscribe our names this 20th day of November, 2003.
