SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

At Celebrate Recovery Fairdale, our vision to help others who may be struggling in life from any kind of addictive behavior, but our primary focus is to concentrate on the most vulnerable who are recovering from alcohol and/or drug addiction. Our mission is to effectively use our resources to provide services that support their physical, emotional, social, and spiritual needs by providing site-to-site transportation, nutritious meals, and childcare services during weekly meetings. As our cornerstone, we are dedicated to using the Celebrate Recovery's 12-Step Program adopted from Alcoholic Anonymous as an evidence-based methodology as a practical means for handling life stresses and issues. We also combine these foundational methods with a dedicated celebratory ceremony for recognizing their individual achievements. Our goal is to help them find freedom from these adverse addictions in order to build stronger personal relationships with family and other supportive members which ultimately leads to a better community. We strive to do this in collaboration with several other community partners such as transitional living facilities who provide wrap-around services and share in our vision of helping others. Currently we support the Healing Place, ARC/Crown Recovery, Isaiah House, Bell Tower, Volunteers of America, Adult Teen Challenge, Second Hope, DISMAS, Exodus Family Ministry, God's Gang, Prisoners Hope and Women of Worth. While we are a faith-based organization, anyone may attend or volunteer for our program without expectations of belonging to a certain church or practicing a specific religion.

SECTION 5 – PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

Our program is centered around weekly meetings that support 200-250 participants. The program is based on Celebrate Recovery's (CR) 12-Step Program adopted from Alcoholic Anonymous as an evidence-based methodology as a practical means for handling life stresses and issues. Celebrate Recovery has been around on the national level for over 30 years. This is our eighth year at CR Fairdale. Our goal is to help participants find freedom from these adverse addictions in order to build stronger personal relationships with family and other supportive members which ultimately leads to better community. We strive to do this in collaboration with other community partners such as transitional living facilities who provide wrap-around services and share in our vision of helping others.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

We are applying for funding to help with the two of the main direct assistance components of our program: transportation and weekly meals.

-$6,600 for In-Town Travel (Transportation Costs). Celebrate Recovery utilizes Jefferson Tours to rent a full-size school bus to pick up and return clients from the Men and Women's Healing Place each Friday night. Without this transportation, most of these participants would not be able to attend.

-$15,400 for Community Events (Meal Costs). This helps offset the cost of weekly meals for participants, which helps to entice them to begin coming to meetings. The meals are open to anyone in the community. We feed approximately 200-250 people each week with an average cost of $1,000 per week.

LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT FUND APPLICATION

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

The program is based on Celebrate Recovery's (CR) 12-Step Program adopted from Alcoholic Anonymous as an evidence-based methodology as a practical means for handling life stresses and issues. Celebrate Recovery uses a qualitative, faith-based framework rather than strictly clinical, data-driven metrics. Instead of standardized testing, it measures progress through spiritual growth, personal accountability, and abstinence milestones. Key indicators of success include completing the Christ-centered 12-Step study and maintaining peer-group stability. Since anonymity is an important aspect of the program, we have instituted voluntary surveys of the attendees concerning the helpfulness of the program to their recovery, what aspects help the most, what areas could be improved, length of clean time and other demographic and program impact questions.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

Celebrate Recovery (CR) Fairdale has several collaboration partners. Collaboration was key part of the CR vision that we started the Recovery Resource Network which consisted of several dozen Louisville-based nonprofits, churches, elected officials, and community advocate agencies. The level of collaboration is one of the primary reasons that makes Celebrate Recovery a good return on the grant dollars invested. The list of partners are growing all the time. We collaborate with several other community partners such as transitional living facilities who provide wrap-around services and share in our vision of helping others. Currently we support the Healing Place, ARC/Crown Recovery, Isaiah House, Bell Tower, Volunteers of America, Adult Teen Challenge, Second Hope, DISMAS, Exodus Family Ministry, God's Gang, Prisoners Hope and Women of Worth.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form
