

John Moore, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

John Moore is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Atria Senior Living, Inc., a national seniors housing operator with its support center in Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. Moore has served on the board of Atria and its predecessor's boards since 1999, and as Chief Executive Officer for Atria and its predecessor since 2003. He was elected as Atria's Chairman of the Board in 2012.

Mr. Moore is a member of the Board of Argentum, a senior housing industry trade association, and former Chairman of the Board of the National Investment Center for Seniors Housing and Care. He has also been a member of various industry associations including the Pension Real Estate Association.

Mr. Moore was previously a Managing Director of Lazard Alternative Investors and a Managing Principal and Chief Financial Officer of Lazard Real Estate Partners (LREP). LREP managed the investment funds that owned Atria's predecessor, Atria Senior Living Group until 2011. Either in connection with his roles with LREP or as Atria's Chief Executive, Atria has been Mr. Moore's main business focus since 1999.

Prior to joining LREP in 1998, Mr. Moore was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of World Financial Properties, a private New York City-based office property owner/operator and a predecessor to the public company Brookfield Financial Properties Corporation. Previously, he worked with Olympia and York Properties as Senior Vice President, Finance and led the financial and restructuring efforts in the company's $5 billion bankruptcy reorganization.

Prior to joining Olympia and York, he worked as a real estate lender with the Sumitomo Bank in New York and Sovran Bank in Norfolk, Virginia.

He is a graduate of Yale University.

