My name is Fred J. Korfhage, IV; I am composing this email for my mother, Virginia L. Korfhage who resides at 4919 Ronwood Drive, Louisville, KY 40219
She is 89 years old and isn't in the best of health and isn't technologically savvy. The following is a letter she composed that she planned to snail mail you, but wanted to send pictures she took of the issues she's having with her neighbor next door (4921 Ronwood Drive, the subject of this variance case).

Dear Amy Brooks,

I will not be attending the Monday, August 7, 2023, at 1:00 pm variance case meeting due to health conditions, thus am requesting you consider my situation regarding a variance to allow an attached, covered deck to encroach into the side yard setback, and a concrete and metal fence exceeding maximum height.

The deck floor sits 7" from my corner fence post and 21" from my garage overhang, surely a fire hazard.

During a recent rain event, water gathered in his back yard, broke through the concrete wall pouring into my yard, potentially eroding the corner of my yard. The wall is 8" - 9" from my chain link fence.

I point out that no permits were applied for or approved prior to any construction.

No doubt my home has been devalued, and at 89 years of age I feel sorely wronged if this variance is approved.

Thank you, sincerely,

Virginia L. Korfhage

CASE # 23-VARIANCE-0063

DEAR Amy Brooks,

I'M REQUESTING THAT YOU NOT ALLOW A VARIANCE TO
THE SETBACK OF ATTACHED DECK AT 4921 RONWOOD DRIVE,
LOUISVILLE, Ky. 40219, FOR HEYLEY BIDABUR PEREZ.

THIS DECK HAS BEEN BUILT TO WITHIN ABOUT 21 INCHES
OF MY GARAGE OVERHANG. MY MAIN CONCERN IS THAT IF THIS DECK CAUGHT FIRE IT WOULD SURELY DESTROY MY GARAGE AND PERHAPS MY HOME.

I HAVE LIVED HERE FOR NEARLY 63 YEARS AND FEEL I
HAVE LOST MY RIGHTS IF THIS VARIANCE WERE APPROVED

THANK YOU.

SINCERELY,

Virginia L. Korfhage
