Executive Summary of Request:

Seeking to replace old worn out uniforms which are costume grade garments with authentic uniforms modeled after the US Army Old Guard.

Section 3-Agency Details

The Color Guard of the Thruston Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution is a volunteer group of chapter members committed to representing our national heritage at public and private events. Since 1996 it has posted colors, marched and participated in over 600 events from the Pegasus and Veterans Day parades, U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Swearing in programs, school exhibitions and historical landmarking ceremonies. We know that more authenticity in our uniforms will inspire more respect and understanding in our audiences as well as to help in attracting new and younger members. We aspire to be our community's "best foot forward" as we represent and honor those who were willing to sacrifice their lives for opportunity and the principles upon which this nation was founded.

The national headquarters is located in Louisville and recently relocated to Main Street where it is a major contributor to our cultural attractions. It draws visitors from all over the country to its programs and genealogy library benefitting our local economy.

(SEE ALSO ATTACHED LIST OF EVENTS AND PROGRAMS)

Section 4-Program/Project Narrative

- A. We are seeking to replace our shopworn, ill-fitting and inauthentic(made of polyester fabric) costume grade uniforms with period correct materials and tailoring modeled after the U.S. Army "Old Guard". We will purchase the uniforms from at least two vendors or "sutlers"(shops that make authentic clothing for historical reenactments).

Coat(wool)	$365
Trousers(linen)	$95
Shirt (muslin)	$45
Neck Stock(linen)	$9

$652 x 12 guard members= $7,824

E.

Our benefits and measurable outcomes are many though perhaps difficult to measure. We perform regularly, as requested by event coordinators, neighborhood leaders and business and government officials. Since 1996 we have performed at over 600 events(approximately three per month). We believe our community wide participation benefits our people by reminding them of the times and struggles of our fore bearers which must be remembered and honored. The men and women of our color guard represent a diversity of socio-economic backgrounds and political persuasions willing to celebrate their common respect for our national traditions.

F.

As the attachment shows we have long standing relationships with the Daughters of the American Revolution, the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Kentucky Derby Festival, Locust Grove and Jefferson County Schools to name a few.

Greatcoat below

Greatcoats were common in the late 18th century. Wonderfully warm in cool evenings or in spring and fall when you wish you had something heavier, more stylish, and more easily documented than a capote. Our greatcoats are cut very full with a nice collar that can be turned up to keep the neck warm. It is made with a removable cape that buttons on, and larger functional pockets. Made of 100% wool. Cotton lined, with domed pewter buttons. Available in three colors: navy, black, and dark green. Three sizes: medium (40-42 chest), Large (44-46 chest), and Big-size XL (48-50 chest).

GC-153 $305.00
GX-153 Big (Size XL) $315.00

New Standard Color! Revolutionary War Continental Coat left & above

We now offer the standard option of ordering this coat in reverse colors. Made with heavy 100% Melton wool, top-lined in linen and skirt-lined in wool. The collar, lapel, and cuffs have unhemmed, rough edges (true to the original design). Large hook-and-eye clasps keep the coat closed across the chest. The lapel can be turned over and secured across the chest with the plain lead-free pewter buttons. Alternative "USA" buttons are available upon request. Two double-welt pockets are located on the inside. The skirts can be clasped open (as pictured) to reveal the double-heart embellishments or unclasped to hang free. This French-pattern Continental Coat is available in even chest sizes from 38" to 52". If waist, chest, or stomach measures 48" or larger, please order Big size. We build some "ease" into these coats so please provide an ACTUAL chest and stomach measurement when ordering. If you belong to a Rev-War unit, we strongly recommend you get this coat approved before you purchase.

Jon Townsend, President

We are so appreciative of your interest in what we do here at Jas. Your comments, questions, feedback and shared research and resources keep us digging deeper every day to uncover the next remnant of historic information.

Many of the over 50 new products featured in this year's catalog came to be because of you, our loyal customers. It isn't possible for us to develop every new product or costume idea that comes our way, but your suggestions continue to be a great resource. So, don't stop writing, calling, emailing, or sharing your ideas on our Youtube channel, blogs, and Facebook Page. We can't always respond to you directly, but we will do our best to answer as many questions as time allows.

Speaking of how your feedback drives change at Jas. Townsend & Son, your response to FREE shipping for orders of $30 and over* last year was so overwhelmingly positive that we are going to continue our offer again this year.

The Townsend family, along with our employees and the many artisans and craftspeople with whom we are privileged to work, offer our thanks and gratitude for making us a part of your living history experiences. It is our pleasure to serve you.

Best Regards,

Jonathan Townsend

There are many of these items here where they are made. Some are exclusive to our store.

Continental Color Guard Honor Guard Co, 4th BN, 3d U. S. Inf. Reg.

The United States Army Continental Color Guard's mission is to showcase the U.S. army's precision nationally and internationally. With a heritage tracing back to the early days of our nation, the continental Color Guard is the 3d Infantry tradition. Regimental records show that the color sergeants and the drum major of the 3d Infantry Band wore Revolutionary War-style uniforms at Fort Snelling, Minn., in 1922. A contemporary description states that the purpose of the unit was to recall the mind of every member of the 3d Infantry, the long and honorable history of the regiment from a period which followed closely upon the Revolutionary War.

The Continental Color Guard Team serves the same function today. The five-man unit is comprised of two armed Guards and three color ensigns, who carry the National Color, the U.S. Army Color, and the Color of their parent unit, the 3d U.S. Infantry Regiment, "The Old Guard."

The uniforms worn by the Color Team are replicas of the 1784-style infantry uniforms worn by The Old Guard's predecessor, the First American Regiment. The pattern of the uniform for wear by all Continental Army infantry units was approved by General George Washington in 1782. It consisted of a blue coat faced with a red collar, cuffs and lapels, white buttons and lining, long-fitting overalls, and a black cocked hat with cockade.

The Continental Color Guard displays the Colors in numerous parades and ceremonies throughout the years.

A solemn part of any civic of military function, the presentation of the National Color assumes a special patriotic and historic significance when borne by this "The Nation's Foremost Color Team."

You may request a performance at a function, but must begin the scheduling process through our headquarters command, The U.S. Army Military District of Washington (MDW).
