

JLL Biography

Douglas H. Owen, SIOR Senior Vice President, Brokerage

Current Responsibilities

Doug Owen is Senior Vice President based in the Louisville office. With more than 23 years of leadership in the commercial real estate industry, Doug specializes in the leasing and sales of office properties and office tenant representation. Doug serves as the JLL Kentucky Principal Broker, leads the JLL Louisville Office Services Group and serves on JLL's national Agency Leadership Committee.

Throughout his career Doug has worked with some of Louisville's largest companies, advising them in office leases, renewals, expansions and headquarters relocations. Doug also represents some of the city's larger institutional office landlords, helping achieve value through filling vacancy, tenant renewals and advice about building improvements.

Experience

Doug started with Harry K. Moore Co. in 1999 as an office broker. From 2003 to 2016, Doug served as a co-owner, co-managing member directing the Office Services Group for Harry K. Moore Co. until its acquisition by JLL in May 2016. Doug continues to direct the Louisville Office Services Group for JLL and to serve as Principal Broker.

Education and Affiliations

Doug graduated from St. Francis High School in Louisville, Kentucky and earned his Bachelor of Arts in 1990 from Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri. Doug is a member of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) and the Urban Land Institute (ULI).
