SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

The Saint James Court Historic Foundation (SJCHF) is a non-profit organization formed in 1987 to operate the Conrad-Caldwell House Museum (CCHM). The specific purpose of the foundation is to: 1) maintain and preserve the historic home located at 1402 St. James Court in the Old Louisville neighborhood in Louisville, KY, 2) engage in educational and charitable activities that promote the historic and architectural heritage of Louisville, and 3) provide tourists and residents the opportunity to visit and study a prime example of Victorian architecture.

The significance of the mansion has been recognized by the Historic American Buildings Survey of the National Park Service - "At the time of its erection, the Conrad Home was the most magnificent resident in the city. The large stone house is an exceptional example of late Queen Anne style with Richardsonian Romanesque details; and is the work of renowned architect Arthur Loomis." Loomis also designed Louisville Medical College, the Speed Art Museum, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Victorian mansion is styled as it would have been in 1908, including many original furnishings and artifacts. Currently, the museum provides guided tours plus, educational and cultural events to approximately 10,000 visitors and students each year.

The Louisville Convention & Visitors Bureau and the Old Louisville Information Center both positively foster CCHM. Additionally, the travel website, TripAdvisor.com ranks the museum in the top 10 of 60 attractions in Louisville to visit. The Kentucky Historical Society approved a state historical marker for the house in 2014. Further, the Louisville Landmarks Commission recently launched a program recognizing the "best of the best" honoring historic structures with plaques, and selected Conrad-Caldwell House as its very first recipient.

We offer special group tours and field trips and host lectures and seminars in conjunction with our special exhibits. Throughout the year, we are involved in community events including the St. James Court Art Show, Hidden Treasures Garden Tour, and the Holiday Home Tour. We hold several fundraisers throughout the year. Additionally, we have two halls that are rented for weddings, bridal showers, corporate events, and meetings.

For the third consecutive year, the Conrad-Caldwell House Museum (CCHM) is inviting community members to end the traditional season of "wearing ones whites", begun during the Victorian era; by attending a fundraiser on the grounds of the museum. "Louisville on the Lawn" (LOL) is an outdoor cultural/social experience taking place on Saturday, August 25th at 6 pm. This is a 21+ event.

The goal of the soiree is to showcase, in a new and creative way, one of Louisville's architectural gems located in the heart of the historically rich Old Louisville neighborhood. Additionally, it aims to foster community engagement by providing a fun, modern event in a historic setting. Proceeds from the evening will support our continued restoration efforts currently underway at the Conrad-Caldwell House Museum.

The parameters for our themed fundraiser: to dress in one's finest white attire, create and bring an outdoor appropriate dinner, plus craft awe-inspiring table decorations (all in white). Prizes will be awarded to those with the most whimsical centerpiece, the best dressed, and the grandest table setting. Throughout the evening, attendees will create lasting memories by participating in unforgettable, amusing entertainment including twirling napkins around before tucking in, listening and/or dancing to live, local jazz greats, and lighting up the sky with sparklers for an appropriately dramatic end of evening send-off. The fundraiser will also feature a cash bar and silent auction with unique findings to compliment the opulent setting.

Guests are strongly encouraged to dress head-to-toe in white, and provide their own cloth napkins, dinnerware and flatware. CCHM will provide grandeur, tables with linens, chairs, elaborate white decor, a live jazz band, and prizes as

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

Our evaluation plan is two-fold: requesting information from guests prior to the event and then sending an email survey after the event. As guests are purchasing their tickets, we will capture their email addresses to send the survey.

The event capacity is 200 paying guests. Our goal is to sell out the event at $50 a ticket. The ticket sales are a fundraiser for the organization.

Our marketing consultants, Force Media, will use Google Ad Words conversion tracking and Google Analytics Goal Tracking to monitor and report the results of conversions from online campaigns. Re-marketing opportunities will be possible through these reports.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

We collaborate closely with the Old Louisville Neighborhood Council (OLNC) throughout the year. For instance, together we provide multiple, joint, guided walking and home tours to visitors and residents, increasing exposure for both organizations. We also join forces and pool resources on all possible community-wide, neighborhood events. Additionally, we assist one another with cross promotion and marketing initiatives for the neighborhood to add to its value, and further our mission. In 2016, the Old Louisville Arts Council was created to foster a spirit of collaboration between neighborhood arts organizations, including the Filson Historical Society, the University of Louisville, Asia Institute at Crane House, the St. James Court Art Show, and Spalding University.

In 2016, we strengthened our partnerships with the Louisville Tea Company by creating a unique blend of tea for the Conrad-Caldwell House Museum. We established and maintained a close relationship with the NouLou Chamber Ensemble with the creation of a Parlor Music Series held at the museum. New2Lou is now holding their October meet and greet for young professionals at CCHM for the second year in a row.

Additional organizations we collaborate with on programming and exhibit projects are: Gumby's Custom Catering, The Paint Spot, the Frazier History Museum, the Kentuckiana Heritage Consortium, the Kentucky Historical Society, Brennan House, Preservation Louisville, Louisville WaterWorks Museum, Carnegie Library, the West End Baptist Church, and the Young Old Louisvillians Organization.

We aim to be good stewards to our neighbors and friends and seek ways to collaborate with similarly minded organizations.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your inquiry of January 8, 1993, requesting a copy of your determination letter.

Our records indicate that by a determination letter issued in August of 1988, your organization was recognized as exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. That letter is still in effect.

Based on information subsequently submitted, we classified your organization as one that is not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

The classification was based on the assumption that your operations would continue as stated in the application. If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operations have changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

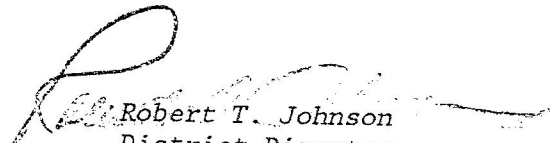

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, you may contact us at the address or telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

This is an affirmation letter.

Sincerely yours,

Robert T. Johnson

Dear KATE:

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your federal and state exempt organization returns from information which you will furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, cancelled checks and other data that form the basis of these returns. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations and/or other irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the tax returns.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

Our fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. However, if there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, please inform us by noting so at the end of the return copy of this letter.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Very truly yours,

Mary Morrow & Associates

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
