Hello

This is how Fordhaven Road looks with all the now apartment residents and how trashy the apartment owners who let their property stay trashy for the public to see and put their trash at the driveway so traffic can hit it. I have computer files full of 311 complaints on the apartments owners and tenants. The residents love to do drugs, drug selling, and have hookers on the side of the road to flag down clients for paid sex. Yes, a hooker tried to flag me down a few times.

We as homeowners really do not need another trashy apartment complex with drug sellers, and hookers as it devalues our property and resell values.

Who wants to live in a trashy neighborhood?

Hello

The other photo is of the west ditch.

As the opening is flooded with creek walk it is backing up into the ditch.
