Good Mr. Luckett,

Just a quick note to voice my opposition to eliminate the zoning binding amendments to the property at 7425 St. Andrews church rd. You said last year, we as neighbors bought into this situation and we knew what we were getting. Sir what I bought into 28 years ago doesn't reflex what has become the front of our neighborhood or the development around us. There once was a well keep building and nice landscaping around an ice cream parlor that once was at this location. The muffler shop was bad enough for years, now that it's gone we don't need another eye sore there. There are many other options in the area to operate the business desired at this location that can be utilized. Thank you for your time sir.
