

Thomas S. Wobbe

Thomas Wobbe, 46, life-long Louisville native and father of two daughters. Father, William R. Wobbe, Sr. (deceased, 1994); mother, Rachel Wobbe Woofter; brother, William (Bill) R. Wobbe, Jr.

Thomas is the Director of Major Accounts for The Underwriters Group, Inc., the among largest independent insurance agencies in the region. He started his insurance career upon college graduation and holds five insurance licenses to practice in Kentucky, including the Consultants License, and the highest educational attainment within the industry, the Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter degree (CPCU).

He serves as Treasure of Anchorage Middletown Fire Protection District, Chair of the Finance Committee, and member of the Board of Trustees, with similar previous service to Harrods Creek Fire Protection District for 15 years. Further, he serves as Chair of the Board of Directors of Workwell Industries, Inc., a local non-profit whose mission it is to create jobs for the difficult to employ, with previous service as Treasurer and Board Member.

Thomas was named "Top Forty Under 40" by Business First in 2007 and is a 2015 graduate of Leadership Louisville. He also enjoys volunteering for Junior Achievement of Kentuckiana.

Thomas attends Christ Church United Methodist, where he served as Chair of the Board of Trustees in 2015, is at two-time past president of the Chancel Choir, and a contributing worship soloist.

Thomas graduated from Centre College with a BA in History. While at Centre he served as President of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and received the inaugural Charles R. Lee Memorial Prize for Leadership. He graduated from Atherton High School.

Thomas' favorite pastimes include golf, fly fishing, snow skiing, sporting clays, cycling, music, and aviation.

Daughter Lily, 18, is Senior at DuPont Manual High School and daughter Elise, 16, is a sophomore at Youth Performing Arts School/DuPont Manual High School. Both are avid ballet dancers, musicians, and straight-A students. Thomas' father, a Louisville native, worked for Standard Gravure, Inc. from 1954 to 1986, retiring as Executive Vice President. Thomas' mother (widowed) married Mr. William Woofter in 2008. His brother, Bill, is a Senior Investment Advisor and Vice President at Baird.
