

Looking for a way to make a difference in a young person's life?

The Right Turn program needs adult volunteers, ages 21 and older, in Louisville to mentor young men and women who are in the juvenile justice system or have been recently released, or whose behavior puts them at-risk for offending.

Mentors are asked...

- To make a one-year commitment to work as a positive role model and friend one-on-one with a young person, ages 16-21
- To help the youth set personal goals and work toward meeting them
- To meet one hour a week with the young person
- To attend Right Turn meetings and events
- To communicate with Right Turn counselors on the youth's progress

Be a mentor for the Right Turn, and help put a young person on the path to a better future! Call (502) 574-4115 now to learn more about being a Right Turn mentor or check out the information online at www.kentuckianaworks.org.

All mentors will be screened and trained.

The Right Turn is administered by KentuckianaWorks, Greater Louisville's Workforce Investment Board and an agency of Louisville Metro Government, in partnership with Jefferson County Public Schools Adult and Continuing Education through the Kentucky Youth Career Center in Louisville.
