An audio recording of the Historic Landmarks and Preservation Districts Commission meeting related to this case is available on the Planning & Design Services website, or you may contact the Customer Service staff to obtain a copy.

Agency Testimony:

00:07:40 Cynthia Elmore presented the appeal and provided an overview of the case (see recording for detailed presentation).

Appellant Testimony:

00:10:21 Sarah Lindgren, Public Art Administrator, spoke in favor of the appeal and showed a Powerpoint presentation. Ms. Lindgren stated when the city was faced with the controversy of whether or not to remove the monument, the Mayor embarked on a public review process for nearly a year. Ms. Lindgren stated her presentation would outline this process, advise how the Mayor came to his decision, and detail why the application for removal complies with the Cherokee Triangle Design Guidelines and why the Landmarks Commission should approve Metro's application for removal (see recording for detailed presentation).

00:30:03 Commissioner Hartman reviewed the appeal process as well as the duties of the Landmarks Commission. Commissioner Hartman advised of time limits allotted for speakers (see recording for detailed presentation).
