SECTION 5 – PROGRAM/PROJECT NARRATIVE

A: Describe the program/project start and end dates, a description of the program/project and applicable data with regards to specific client population the program will address (attach related flyers, planning minutes, designs, event permits, proposals for services/goods, etc.):

The Garden Ministry begins in April with the first planting of the crops and ends in December with the last harvest of the Fall crops. In addition to Buechel Park Baptist Church, volunteers from three other churches plant, harvest and/or deliver vegetables -- Deer Park Baptist Church, St. Raphael Catholic Church and Ascension Catholic Church. The people receiving vegetables are low income; in some cases (ex., The Center for Lay Ministries) they must meet federal guidelines for receiving food assistance.

B: Describe specifically how the funding will be spent including identification of funding to sub grantee(s):

The funding was used for the following:

- Refrigerator repairs & parts – $329.82
- Cost for plowing the garden – $200.00
- Garden and Lawn Fertilizer – $149.90
- 40 lb Pellet Lime – $23.65
- Fuel – $8.01
- Plants, seeds, etc. – $332.00

TOTAL = $1,043.38

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

St. John Paul II provides food to approximately 75 families per month.

New Zion Baptist Church provides food to between 200 and 400 families per month.

The Center for Lay Ministries provides food to between 40-50 families per day.

South Louisville Community Ministries provides food on 1-2 times a week to 50-100 families.

United Crescent Hill Ministries provides food on weekdays and they have a lower volume.

The Lord's Kitchen serves 600 people per week; our vegetables are provided to the people via meals prepared on site, as well as sending vegetables home with people who come for food.

In total, we delivered to these organizations 78 times in 2021.

We also delivered 13 times to our homebound and elderly members.

After each harvest, the Garden Ministry crew brings the vegetables to the garden room at Buechel Park Baptist Church and weighs each type of vegetable. For example, we weigh all the collards, separately; weigh all the cabbage, etc. In 2021, we harvested at total of 26,473 pounds of vegetables.

One of the program's main benefit to those being served is that they are receiving fresh, healthy food as opposed to processed, less healthy food.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

The Garden Ministry Team communicates with our aforementioned partners to find out when they distribute food, the expected number of people coming for food and about how much they can use from our harvest. Each community organization we work with has a process in place to equitably distribute food.

La Tonya –

You asked: “Jeff, please clarify, does the Buechel Park Baptist Church’s Garden Ministry provides free vegetables to the general public who comes to its Garden Ministry and other locations, such as the Lord’s Kitchen, and other churches and ministries? Thanks.”

Yes to the first part. The general public who arrive for their food pantry, which includes groceries from the Dare to Care program, also receive free vegetables from their Garden Ministry.

To your other questions, Buechel Park currently has commitments to deliver vegetables to the following churches for their food pantries:

- Jeffersontown United Methodist Church (Tuesday)
- St. John Paul II (Tuesday)
- South Louisville Community Ministries (Wednesday)
- Trinity Family Life Center/New Zion Baptist Church (Thursday)

In addition, when there are vegetables available, there are other ministries, such as the Lord’s Kitchen, who request their services. The Lord’s Kitchen is receiving a delivery of vegetables today (09/13/2022). On Monday, there was a delivery to the United Crescent Hill Ministries.

Please let me know if there are any other questions.

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request for affirmation of your organization's exempt status.

We have corrected our records to indicate that your organization is included in a group ruling issued to Southern Baptist Convention, which is located in Nashville, TN.

Southern Baptist Convention is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is classified as a public charity, and not a private foundation, because it is described in section 109(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Code as a church.

As your organization is included in a group ruling, it does not have an individual exemption letter. The group exemption letter applies to all of the subordinate organizations on whose behalf Southern Baptist Convention has applied for recognition of exemption. This means your organization is also exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to your organization as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to your organization or for its use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If we can be of further assistance in this matter, please write or telephone us.

Sincerely,
