E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

Beautification of neighborhood improving an ugly gateway into the neighborhood coming from downtown

Trees absorb odors and pollutant gases emitted by adjacent factories.

Average temperatures in Louisville are rising faster than the national average and creating urban "heat islands" since the tree coverage has declined and the number of heat-absorbing roads and buildings has increased.

Trees cool the area by up to 10°F, by shading our homes and streets, breaking up urban "heat islands" and releasing water vapor into the air through their leaves.

Trees reduce runoff by breaking rainfall thus allowing the water to flow down the trunk and into the earth below the tree. This prevents stormwater from carrying pollutants our creeks and the river. When mulched, trees act like a sponge that filters this water naturally and uses it to recharge groundwater supplies.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

IHNA has worked extensively with the Louisville Metro Tree Advisory Commission on this project to determine the best native species of tree to plant in this location, and we will continue to consult with them through the implementation of this project.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.
Future developments. The IRS has created a page on www.irs.gov/w9 for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

PURCHASE EXEMPTION NUMBER: [REDACTED]

EFFECTIVE DATE: 03/15/2001

Dear Sir or Madam:

Based on the information submitted in your Application for Purchase Exemption -- Sales and Use Tax, you are hereby authorized to purchase tangible personal property or services, including utilities, without paying or reimbursing the vendor for the sales or use tax with respect to such purchases.

Your vendor is hereby authorized to sell tangible personal property or services, including utilities, to you without receipt of sales or use tax, provided the vendor receives a copy of your purchase exemption certificate, Revenue Form 51A126, in good faith and retains the copy in the business's records. Every invoice should show that delivery was made to you and should bear the exemption permit number shown above. The vendor may deduct receipts from these sales on Line 4 of his/her return.

If any of the property purchased is not used within the exempt function of your charitable, educational, or religious institution, you will immediately report and pay the required tax measured by the purchase price of the property (you must contact the Revenue Cabinet immediately if such a situation arises). Any official or employee of the institution who uses official position to make tax-free purchases for personal use, or that of any other person, will be subject to the penalties provided in KRS 139.990 and other applicable laws.

This exemption authorization applies only to purchases made by your organization. If you are a nonprofit charitable, educational, or religious institution making retail sales of tangible personal property, a sales and use tax permit must be obtained for reporting and remitting the tax on such sales. For further information refer to the enclosed Revenue Circular 51C030.

In the event there is a change in your name, address, or operations from the information submitted in your application, you must notify the Revenue Cabinet in writing of the change immediately.

If you require additional assistance, please write: Revenue Cabinet, Sales and Use Tax Section, Station 53, PO Box 181, Frankfort, KY 40602-0181. Phone 502-564-5170.
