F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program specifically.

Build-A-Bed is a collaborative partnership between JCPS, the Kentucky Commission on Community Volunteerism and Services (KCCVS), Youth Build, and Brenda Frank Coordinator of the Mayor's Give A Day Campaign. As the central hub for the project JCPS is working as the fiscal agent for the project as well as holding and facilitating all of the planning meetings. In addition, JCPS and the KCCVS have collaborated in soliciting donations for the project and recruiting volunteers to build and deliver the beds. Youth Build has been involved by attending the meetings and providing their expertise about large building projects. For the build Youth Build will also precut all of the wood and train the JCPS AmeriCorps staff on how to build the beds in preparation for the community build. The office of the Mayor's Give A Day Campaign will assist in recruiting community volunteers for the day of the build.

G: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

Many children around Jefferson County go to sleep each night without proper sleeping arrangements. More than 13,000 children are homeless during each school year in Jefferson County. When family circumstances improve enough to enable the family to secure a place to call home, most of them start from scratch. For the children, this means either sleeping on a couch or more often on the floor. The lack of a supportive bed means that children are not only less healthy but are also less able to successfully participate in educational activities. Children who are not well rested miss more school and struggle to stay awake when they are in class. They have trouble keeping up with class work which leads to a downward spiral of failure and disengagement from school and eventually dropping out. Our goal is to build up to 200 beds to meet the critical need for these students. Each student that receives a bed will be able to get a better nights rest, which in turn will lead to them being able to focus better during the school day. Our hope is that these students will show increased academic performance and decrease in behavior incidents because that are well rested. Each family is required to fill out an application outlining their financial situation and their needs. With this application the planning committee will chose the neediest children to receive the beds.

Subject: RE: Build a Bed Funding Request

Scott,

Good afternoon. Teresa Gray ask that I respond to your question regarding Build-A-Bed and how it meets public purpose. The public purpose for Build-A-Bed will focus on educational attainment. More than 13,000 children are homeless during each school year in Jefferson County. When family circumstances improve enough to enable the family to secure a place to call home, most of them start from scratch. For most children, this means either sleeping on a couch or, more often, on the floor. Having a bed to sleep in can give a stronger sense of stability and can help children get the rest they need in order to attend school and achieve academic success. If children are not able to get the needed rest, this effects school success, which could lead to dropping out of school. Our goal for Build-A-Bed is to remove this non-cognitive barrier to education.

Please feel free to contact me if you have additional questions.

Sincerely,

Ben Langley

Build-A-Bed

In conjunction with the Mayors
Give-A-Day Week of Service
Date: Saturday, April 12, 2014
Location: T J Middle School

This coming spring, the Jefferson County Public Schools AmeriCorps Program will be partnering with Mayor Greg Fischer's Give-A-Day Project by building beds for children in our community who do not have a bed that they can call their own. All children who meet income guidelines and who resides in Jefferson County (regardless of whether they attend a JCPS school or not) qualify for this program.

The need addressed by the service project: More than 13,000 children are homeless during each school year in Jefferson County. When family circumstances improve enough to enable the family to secure a place to call home, most of them start from scratch. For most children, this means either sleeping on a couch or, more often, on the floor. Having a bed to sleep in can give a stronger sense of stability and can help children get the rest they need in order to attend school and achieve academic success.

History of the project: Build a Bed began in 2010 with a 550+ 24 hour Build a Bed blitz in Frankfort, KY. Over 2,000 volunteers joined together to build beds, assemble bedtime baskets and to deliver beds across Kentucky. Since that time, more than 600 beds have been built with the leadership of AmeriCorps members throughout Kentucky.

Partners in the project: REACH Corps has been approached by the Kentucky Commission on Community Volunteerism and Service (KCCVS) to coordinate Build-A-Bed on behalf of children in Jefferson County. REACH Corps has proposed organizing the event as part of the Mayor's Give-A-Day Project. In addition to REACH Corps and KCCVS, Youth Build has been an extremely valuable partner in the planning process and will also help with the actual event. Family Resource/Youth Service Center Coordinators, Louisville Linked, and Neighborhood Places will help identify children in need of beds. The identified children must live in a household whose income is at or below 200% of poverty and the living arrangements must be stable (i.e. not on the verge of eviction).

Details about the event: This proposed project would take place on Saturday, April 12, at Thomas Jefferson Middle School. The service opportunity will host up to 150 volunteers with a goal to construct 200 beds. Building supply vendors, like K&I Lumber, will donate materials. A local non-profit, Youth-Build, will pre-cut wood so that on the day of the event, volunteer teams will be able to assemble the beds using the step by step instructions provided. It is our hope to provide the following for each child: bed frame, mattress, pillow, sheets, comforter, pajamas, books, toothbrush, toothpaste and a teddy bear.

Dear TAXPAYER:

This is in response to your June 03, 2011, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in JULY 1983.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. QUALIFICATIONS, TENURE AND NUMBER.

A director shall be chosen to serve on the board based on his or her ability to bring financial resources to the corporation for the purpose of enhancing Jefferson County Public Schools. Financial resources may be in the form of personal gifts, grants, and contributions from individuals, groups, corporations and other sources, public or private to support financially and otherwise the public school system of Jefferson County, Kentucky. A director will engage a leadership role for special fund raising projects during his or her term(s). A director's term is three years.

The number of directors of the corporation shall be no less than nine (9) but up to twenty-four (24). The number of directors above nine (9) shall be determined by the Board when appropriate candidates are eligible to serve on the Board. The members of the Board of Directors shall be divided into three (3) classes as nearly equal in number as may be practicable with the term of office of one class expiring each year. At the annual meeting of the directors in 1983, three (3) classes of directors shall be elected. The directors of the first class shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the next succeeding annual meeting; directors of the second class shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the second succeeding annual meeting; and directors of the third class shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. At each annual meeting of directors, the successors to the class of directors whose term shall then expire as set forth above shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting from the annual meeting of their election. When the number of directors is changed, any newly created directorships or any decrease in directorships shall be so apportioned among the classes as to make all classes as nearly equal in number as possible. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or until his successor shall have been elected and qualifies for the office, whichever period is longer. Directors need not be residents of Kentucky.

SECTION 3. NOMINATING COMMITTEE. There shall be a Nominating Committee made up of a minimum of three directors appointed by the chairperson. SECTION 4. REGULAR MEETINGS. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this bylaw. The Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, within or without the State of Kentucky, for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution. There shall be an annual meeting of the Board of Directors in June of each year.

SECTION 5. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the chairman or any two directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Kentucky, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them.

SECTION 6. NOTICE. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least two days previously thereto by written notices delivered personally or mailed to each director at his business address, or by telegram. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice were given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

SECTION 7. QUORUM. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, provided that if less than a majority of the directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

SECTION 8. MANNER OF ACTING. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full Board of Directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees, each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors, but no such committee shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business, recommending a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, or amending these bylaws.

A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the Board of Directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors.

SECTION 10. COMPENSATION. No director shall receive compensation for his or her services as director; however, any expenses incurred by any director by reason of his or her duties or responsibilities as such may be paid by the corporation.

SECTION 11. INFORMAL ACTION. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee, may be taken without a meeting if a consent, in writing, setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

ARTICLE IV

Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. A director will be considered for removal from the Board if the director misses two meetings in one calendar year period.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
