

LOUISVILLE/JEFFERSON COUNTY SOLID WASTE MASTER PLAN

Short Term PPIs	Res	ICI	C&D/SH/Bul
Waste reduction and reuse education	X	X	X
Partner with local reuse stores	X		X
Adopt residential county-wide service level standards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Embedded/bundled fees Provide carts for recycling Standardized bins and labels 	X
Bulky waste processing	X
Expanded marketing program, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Youth education (RES) Partnerships with schools (RES) Engage homeowner associations (RES) 	X	X	X
Technical assistance and toolkits	X	X	X
Awards and recognition	X	X
Standardized bins, labels and adequate infrastructure for MF and commercial	X	X
Adopt county-wide service level standards for self-haul facilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Adequate infrastructure Standardized bins, labels, and facility signage Preferential fees for recycling 			X
Separation of self-haul			X
Reuse materials in road construction			X
Green building			X
C&D processing ordinance			X
Yard waste disposal ban enforcement	X	X	X

Long Term PPIs
Product stewardship
Reuse events
Online material exchange forum
Universal food scrap composting
Expanded curbside recycling list
Tip floor sorts
Dry waste processing
Wet/dry collection
Mixed waste processing
Every-other-week trash collection
Resident champions
Require collection of recyclables
Require collection of yard waste and food scraps
Mandatory recycling
Mandatory yard waste and food scraps composting
Landfill disposal bans
Pilot regional collection
Pay-as-you-throw

KEY TERMS & DEFINITIONS

Res = Primarily single-family waste
 ICI = Institutional, commercial, and industrial waste
 PPI = Programs, policies, and infrastructure
 C&D = Construction & demolition debris
 SH = Self-hauled waste
 Bul = Bulky waste

¹ Diversion rate (Source: Sustain Louisville Plan 2013)
² 80 % Participation
 70 % Diversion of recoverable materials
 Recoverable materials are materials that are technically recoverable through recycling composting, energy or beneficial reuse AND that have processing facility or market in the Louisville region.
³ 90% participation and 90% diversion of recoverable materials.