- Council Member Kramer

A motion was made by Council Member Kramer, seconded by Council Member Piagentini, that the proposed amendment by substitution to the Resolution be amended as follows:

- Delete Whereas clauses 11 and 12
- Add a new Whereas clause that states: "WHEREAS, the Council believes that every Louisville Metro Citizen has the right to feel safe in his/her own neighborhood. The membership of the Louisville Metro Council believes new leadership in the Mayor's Office is essential to bringing the change needed at LMPD, and we believe that the lack of trust that has occurred between our citizens and our government has unfortunately been fostered by the false claims of transparency and accountability by an administration marred by scandals in multiple departments, overtime abuses, as well as record high homicide and crime rates within our city."

The following spoke to the proposed amendment:

- Council Member Winkler
- Council Member Blackwell
- Council Member Mulvihill
- Council Member McCraney
- Council Member Fowler

The motion to amend the proposed amendment by substitution failed by the following vote:

- Council Member Blackwell
- Council Member Dorsey
- Council Member Purvis
- Council Member Sexton Smith
- Council Member George
- Council Member Fowler

- Council Member Kramer

A motion was made by Council Member Kramer, seconded by Council Member Piagentini, that the proposed amendment by substitution to the Resolution be amended as follows:

-Change current SECTION III to SECTION IV.

-Add a new SECTION III that states: "The council recognizes that the 14 proceeding issues are ones that the Mayor has thus far failed to accomplish and requests that the Mayor re-examine his resolve and consider resignation.

-Add "If the Mayor refuses to resign" at the beginning of SECTION IV in front of the following language: "the Council stands ready as a co-equal branch of government to work with Mayor Greg Fischer and the Administration to advance these policies for the benefit of all residents of Louisville Metro. Failure to advance these objectives will result in further actions by the Council."

The following spoke to the proposed amendment:

- Council Member Coan
