Sponsorships are $450. As a sponsor, you would have a table for eight for the event, would have your name listed in the program, and would be recognized at the event.

Our group is restoring the historic Farnsley-Kaufman House and employs the house as an educational tool for students at Farnsley Middle School and for others in the community.

The original portion of the house is a log cabin that David Farnsley built in 1812. In 1813, David married Sarah Meriwether, a cousin of Meriwether Lewis. The couple raised seven children, and in 1832 they began construction of a two-story brick addition to the log house. Between 1814 and 1831, the farm grew to be several hundred acres, and 19 enslaved African Americans worked the farm and domestic compound. The house stands today much as it appeared in 1832.

In recent years, our group has been actively involved in educational programs for Farnsley Middle School students. In partnership with the Kentucky Archeological Survey, the group has sponsored multiple "digs" at the site in which Farnsley students have had an opportunity to participate. Other educational programs have included the creation of a display for the Kentucky State Fair, a photo contest, an essay contest, and a play about the house written and produced by Farnsley Middle students.

If you are willing to sponsor our 2016 annual fundraiser, please contact me at Nicole.maddox@texasroadhouse.com or (502) 592-5354. Your sponsorship check can also be mailed directly to me at my home address at 7102 Greenwood Road, Louisville, KY 40258.
