LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL NEIGHBORHOOD DEVELOPMENT FUND APPLICATION

SECTION 3 – AGENCY DETAILS

Describe Agency's Vision, Mission and Services:

Housed in an historic building that once was as a school, the Clifton Center serves the community primarily by presenting quality cultural programming. Launched in 2010, the Clifton Center presents Live at the Clifton Center, which is an annual series of diverse and unique programming that is becoming an integral part of the cultural life of Louisville. While also serving as a unique rental facility, the Clifton Center is a vibrant center that presents acclaimed musicians, award-winning films, arts education programs, and a variety of other cultural offerings of the highest quality that enrich the Louisville community. Boasting the beautiful 500-seat Eifler Theater, as well as a variety of other studio and meeting spaces, the Clifton Center has become a treasured performance venue and gathering place for the greater Louisville community. It is estimated that a minimum of 50,000 people come to the Clifton Center each year for wedding celebrations, art classes, dance classes, concerts, meetings, and other community events.

The Clifton Center was founded in 1995 with the purpose of serving as an affordable rental facility for community events including music and theater productions, weddings, meeting, and other gatherings. In 2010 the Clifton Center expanded its mission to include arts presenting and adopted its current mission "... to serve as a gathering place for art, culture, and ideas that enrich our community."

In its role as a rental facility, the Clifton Center regularly provides local nonprofits with deeply discounted, or often free, rental space which makes possible the important work of the worthy organizations that benefit the greater community. Community organizations that use the Clifton Center include the Coalition for the Homeless, Seven Counties, Phoenix Health Service, Family Health Centers, Colon Cancer Prevention Project, Family & Children's Place, the Sierra Club, Veterans Affairs of Louisville, Volunteers of America, Center for Nonprofit Excellence, and the Louisville Folk School, among many others.

In its more recent role as arts presenter, the Clifton Center has deepened its impact on the community by providing cultural and educational opportunities that reach a broad audience representative of Louisville's rich diversity. The Clifton Center believes that the arts are a powerful tool for uniting people and creating strong, vibrant, and healthy communities. The Center adheres to the philosophy that by learning to appreciate our own cultural traditions and, just as importantly, developing an understanding of the cultural traditions of others, we are able to create a greater level of understanding while eliminating destructive barriers that separate us. In support of that goal, the Clifton Center uses its presentations of music from around the world as a starting point for bringing together diverse groups of people. By creating programming that includes a variety of events, like free community gatherings, ethnic dinners, film screenings, hands-on art activities for kids, and, of course, concerts, members of our community are able to interact with the art, culture, and the people of a particular tradition on many levels, creating a deeper and richer experience for all. In addition, the Clifton Center has ongoing partnerships with Field Elementary School and the University of Louisville School of Music, where Clifton Center artists regularly perform concerts and lead master classes for areas students. The Clifton Center strives to make the quality art experiences that it offers accessible to those young and old who may have limited access to such opportunities by providing free tickets to particularly underserved groups.

The Center has also served a key role in the economic renaissance of the Clifton neighborhood. The Center has helped revitalize the Frankfort Avenue corridor that is now among the most vital business districts in Louisville. A hub of activity, the Clifton Center draws thousands of people each year to the many restaurants, bars, art galleries and retail stores that surround the Center.

The 2015-2016 Live at the Clifton Center series runs from September through May and will include appearances by legendary bluegrass band Hot Rize; virtuosic Brazilian choro musicians Trio Brasileiro; Latin rhythms of Cumbia All Stars; Louisville's own Appalatin; guitar genius Roland Dyens; favorite American singer-songwriter Loudon Wainwright III with Louisville's Joan Shelley; NEA Jazz Master Dave Liebman; Grammy nominee jazz vocalist Tierney Sutton; True Blues with Eric Bibb and Corey Harris; American songster and co-founder of the Carolina Chocolate Drops Dom Flemons; the SFJAZZ Collective playing the music of Michael Jackson; and the great fingerstyle guitarist Leo Kottke. The Clifton Center also collaborates with WFPK to present the free four-part Winter Wednesday concert series held at the Center from November through February.

E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

Live at the Clifton Center is intended to appeal to and benefit the general public. The series provides the public with the opportunity to explore and discover the richness of various cultural traditions from around the world and from this country.

The Clifton Center evaluates the success of the series based on attendance at all events, as well as feedback from audience members, staff, Board members, and participating artists.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

Partnerships are an important component of the Clifton Center's efforts to serve the community and have become one of the Center's strategies for success. The Clifton Center has a close partnership with Field Elementary School where the Center regularly arranges in-school performances and demonstrations by visiting artists. This season, Cumbia All Stars, Trio Braslieiro, Eric Bibb, and others will perform for students at Field. The Center also has a good relationship with the University of Louisville School of Music and partners with the Community Music Program to offer music instruction to children and adults at the Clifton Center. In addition, the Center regularly arranges master classes conducted by Clifton Center visiting artists specifically for students at the UofL School of Music. For instance, NEA Jazz Master Dave Liebman will work with students from the Jazz Studies Program during his visit this fall. The Center has a key partnership with Louisville Public media and continues the cold-weather version of LPM's popular "Waterfront Wednesdays," at the Clifton Center again this season. The Clifton Center has also recently become the permanent home to the Louisville Folk School, which has prompted a fruitful partnership. The Center and the Folk School have collaborated on programming and, in addition, Folk School students have become new audience members of Live at the Clifton Center concerts. The Louisville Visual Art Association is another key partner with the Clifton Center. Since establishing two permanent studio spaces at the Center, the Louisville Visual Art Association holds art classes for adults and children at the Clifton Center. The classes bring hundreds of aspiring artists into our facility, and allows the Center to meet its goal of expanding arts opportunities for members of our community. The Center also has a close partnership with the Coalition for the Homeless, working together on the annual Give-A-Jam, an evening of music and food held at the Center that raises money for homelessness.

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(2) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(2) organization.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Letter 947 (DO/CG)

-2-CLIFTON

CULTURAL CENTER, INC.

Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

Contribution deductions are allowable to donors only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. See Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, which sets forth guidelines regarding the deductibility, as charitable contributions, of payments made by taxpayers for admission to or other participation in fundraising activities for charity.

In the heading of this letter we have indicated whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax. If Yes is indicated, you are required to file Form 990 only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. However, if you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, please file the return even if you do not exceed the gross receipts test. If you are not required to file, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $10 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $5,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete, so please be sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

If we have indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.
