Southwest Community Festival

"Family Fun in the Southwest"

The Southwest Community Festival is one of the biggest community events in Louisville celebrating and showcasing Southwest's people, businesses, and culture. The festival is family friendly and offers something for all ages. The Southwest Community Festival draws over 15,000 people, each year, to this one day event. The festival will be held at Sun Valley Park on Saturday, October 14, 2017 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm at 6505 Bethany Lane in Valley Station.

The Southwest Community Festival kicks off in the morning with the Southwest Community Breakfast at Sun Valley Community Center from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. FREE festival events include: Over a hundred booths to browse showcasing the Southwest; A car, truck, and motorcycle show presented by River City Street Rods, Inc.; Kids City with free games and inflatables; arts, crafts, food booths; Teen City, Toddler Town, Men's tent, and a Senior Tent with bingo and drawings. Dance the day away! The Louisville Crashers will provide live entertainment throughout the day playing music from early hits to today's most popular tunes. Come out for a day of free family fun in the Southwest! For more information about The 2017 Southwest Community Festival, visit the website at www.swcf-ky.org.

TODDLER TOWN is a free area designed just for the pre-school and younger aged children

KIDS' CITY has inflatables, arts & crafts, and games that speak to all energetic pre-teens
