The Human Trafficking Research Initiative and the Kent School of Social Work invite you to join us for a screening of I AM JANE DOE, which chronicles the epic battle that several American mothers are waging on behalf of their middle-school daughters, victims of sex trafficking on Backpage.com, the adult classifieds section that for years was part of the iconic Village Voice.

This event is free to the public and will feature a follow-up community conversation after the film lead by expert panelists, including some words from Attorney General Andy Beshear and members of the cyber crimes unit and victim services.
