E: Describe the program's benefits to those being served (measurable outcomes). Include the program's process for collecting data and the indicators that will be tracked to measure the benefits to those being served:

In 2015, 12,000 to 15,000 people attended the one-day Louisville Pride Festival. This estimate was provided by Louisville Metro Police. In addition, the volunteers at the festival counted the number of event programs given out to attendees, which provided a similar count of attendees.

For the 2016 Louisville Pride Festival, a noticable increase in attendees is expected primarily due to increased media exposure, an increase in the number of exhibitors and increased size the festival area. For the 2016 festival, hand tally counters will be used at each festival entrance to gauge attendance.

F: Briefly describe any existing collaborative relationships the organization has with other community organizations. Describe what those partners are bringing to the relationship in general and to this program/project specifically.

For the 2016 Louisville Pride Festival, we expect approximately 180 vendors, many of which are local community non-profits and LGBTQA organizations. One of the key partnerships is with Omega National Products, a Louisville company, where the World's Largest Disco Ball will be featured at the Louisville Pride Festival.

The Louisville Pride Foundation also is collaborating with the Louisville Convention & Vistors Bureau (LCVB) to promote Louisville as a LGBTQ-friendly busines environment, vacation destination, and home.

In addition, for the production of the Louisville Pride Festival, we are collaborating with Louisville Metro Police for security services, Louisville Metro EMS for stand-by ambulatory services, Lousville Metro Public Works/SWMS for waste management products and services and Louisville Metro Parks for picnic tables.

As part of the production of the Louisville Pride Festival, a Waste Managment Plan and Map of facilities has been produced. These are included as Attachment K.
