Yes, that is fine. 2 bedrooms will allow you a maximum of 6 guests. If the Conditional Use Permit is approved and you update the other bedrooms in the future, you may request a Modification of the CUP to increase the number of guests.

Mr. Tang,

Can you please provide additional photos that show that all 5 requested bedrooms have building code-compliant egress windows? In the photos that you submitted with your formal application, there are two rooms that appear to have no windows at all. This will determine the maximum number of guests for your proposed short term rental.

Thank you,
