Good Afternoon Beth,

After hard discussion and thoughtful reflection, our justification for having a CUP in close proximity with other CUPs comes down to serving the visitors of our city. This Schnitzelburg / Germantown area has so much to offer when it comes to Louisville culture. A great neighborhood, with diverse- open minded neighbors is a fantastic virtue for our city's guests to enjoy a fun, intimate setting for their stay. Spending the night in homes, not hotels, is the best way to experience any city. To stay where the people stay, to enjoy the same neighborhood as if they belong to our city, even if only for a weekend. We strongly believe that this CUP justifies itself once you get on site, and feel the coziness of the home we provide to the treasured guests to our neighborhood.

I hope you find this satisfactory for our CUP justification.
