FY19 Budget Planning Factors

- Pension
 - CERS rates in FY19 and beyond
 - GASB #67/#68 implemented (Allocation of unfunded liability by KRS to member participants)
 - GASB #75 to be implemented (OPEB—Other Post-Employment Benefits)
 - Affect on state budget, partner agencies, and Water Company dividend

FY19 Budget Planning Factors

- Health Care Costs
 - Holding employee premiums flat to FY18 for recruitment/retention purposes in a tight labor market
 - Pharmacy costs
 - Chronic health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, obesity, COPD
 - Ability to modify plan design for items such as formulary changes and differentiation of premiums based on tobacco use (both subject to collective bargaining process)

FY19 Budget Planning Factors

- State budget
 - 6.25% Cabinet level reductions are not currently known and may impact Metro programs
 - Ancillary effect of the state's increased pension costs
- Federal budget and tax reform
 - Increased domestic spending in programs such as CDBG and HOME
 - Tax reform's short-term impact
 - Tax reform's long-term impact to be determined

Metro Financial Strength

“The stable outlook reflects our view that the metropolitan government will maintain its very strong liquidity profile and strong budgetary flexibility, budgetary performance, and management profile.”

--S&P Ratings Report for Louisville, 10/2/17

“The ‘AAA’ ratings reflect the metro government’s low long-term liabilities and strong revenue and expenditure frameworks, as well as Fitch Ratings’ expectation that the government will maintain a high level of financial flexibility through economic cycles.”

--Fitch Ratings Report for Louisville, 10/3/17

“The Aa1 reflects the city’s large and regionally significant tax base, average income levels, stable financial operations, adequate reserves and liquidity and manageable debt and pension burdens.”

--Moody’s Ratings Report for Louisville, 10/2/17
