DEPARTMENT OF METRO PARKS
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

GREG FISCHER
MAYOR

SEVE GHOSE (PRE)
DIRECTOR

Dear Ms. Hughes,

I am writing to ask for the Council's support for the Iroquois Amphitheater's free Movie series and general programming support for our self-promoted shows. Typical expenses are Royalties, Security, Red Cross, Advertising and Production Labor. The Council support helps off-set these costs and gives the entire City the chance to enjoy the Amphitheater either free of charge or at a below market ticket price.

Our series, Movies Under the Stars, is affording a quality experience to many families looking to escape the Summer confines of their apartments and homes. The atmosphere here is welcoming and comfortable. Our audience reflects all of Louisville and all ages. We select movies to entertain and to present positive messages.

We are also asking for support for programming to present under represented genres such as Ethnic Artists, Orchestras and children's events. We also work with others to present Civic events and Community programming.

With the Council's support, we will show a minimum of 8 movies during this season. We also will present 4 Orchestra's each one unique. We will use additional funds to off-set the costs to bring Regional Artists to the Amphitheater.

Council Members will be recognized for their support at all events at the Amphitheater, along with any other additional sponsors that may have contributed to the event. Council Members are welcome to speak before the movies to up date their constituents on their District.

I respectfully request $22,572.00 for the summer of 2019. The monies will allow events sponsored by Louisville Parks and Recreation to serve the Amphitheater's mission to entertain, educate and enrich our communities. We strive to strengthen the Arts for future generations and maintain our place as a Louisville destination and source of Civic pride.

Thank You for your support of the Iroquois Amphitheater.

Sincerely,

Michael Hallett
