The following spoke to this item:

- Lee Burchfield, Louisville Free Public Library
- Chair Person Yates
- Vice Chair Piagentini
- Council Member Sexton Smith

The following was discussed:

- Polaris Integrated Library software system is used to track 1.5 million items in the collection held by the Louisville Free Public Library
- This system allows the Library to track what patron is in possession of Library material
- The system has been in operation for over ten years
- Three companies have submitted bids to the Library during their RFP process
- The bids will be reviewed and considered for the upcoming fiscal year
- Previous amounts for the contract totaled $157,000 and $153,000, however, the price can vary
- This contract includes equipment and software services
- Vice Chair Piagentini asked about reopening plans for on-site service
- The Library currently has curbside pickup and is evaluating on-site operating hours for the coming months due to COVID-19
- The reopening plan is subject to comparison with similar peer cities
- The final changes to begin in-person/on-site operations will be made by the Mayor's Office
- The Library will reopen on a safe plan for both staff and the public in compliance with CDC guidelines

The motion carried by a voice vote and the Resolution was sent to the Consent Calendar.

A motion was made by Vice Chair Piagentini, seconded by Committee Member Engel, that this Resolution be recommended for approval.

The following spoke to this item:

- Lee Burchfield, Louisville Zoo
- Chair Person Yates

The following was discussed:

- In 2009 the main Library lost two book mobiles due to a flash flood
- Another book mobile became outdated
- This contract will enable the Library to have a much larger book mobile with additional amenities and capacity
- This expenditure was largely made possible through a donation from a Friend of the Library and the Library Foundation match grant
- The Library hopes to possibly have all collected funds by early spring 2021

The motion carried by a voice vote and the Resolution was sent to the Consent Calendar.
