Steve-

I am excited to be participating in this year's Man & Woman of the Year Campaign benefiting the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. This competition between local community leaders raises funds in order to help the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society further its important mission of finding a cure for blood cancers and improving the quality of life for patients and their families.

On Wednesday, May 20th, I will be co-hosting an event at the Germantown Mill Lofts to help Michael Faurest attempt to become the Man of the Year for the Leukemia Lymphoma Society. The event will feature food from local restaurants in Germantown, drinks, and fun entertainment while providing a sneak preview of the Mill as it begins to transform into a unique mixed use project. The Taste of Germantown & Schnitzelburg will be held from 6:00 to 9:00 PM on the 20th.

Additionally, the event will honor the late Jim King who courageously battled blood cancer for 3 years prior to passing, and is a great friend of the Germantown/Schnitzelburg neighborhoods. Jim's service to the City of Louisville and his bout with cancer gives me great inspiration to help further the research efforts to find a cure for cancer. This illness touches all of us in some way, nobody is excluded, and I hope you will join me to help LLS get closer to finding a cure!

Would you be willing to participate by pledging a corporate and/or individual donation to this cause? The Society relies on charitable support not just to fund medical research, but for the many programs and services we provide to local patients - from diagnosis, through treatment, and into survivorship. The funds raised at this event will help to further the mission of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

I look forward to following up with you directly to discuss this in more detail.

Regards,

Colin

Subject: How the funds are spent

Our Mission: To cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma and improve the quality of life of patients and their families.

Since its funding in 1949, The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) has invested more than $1 billion in blood cancer research, nearly $80 million in FY14 alone. LLS-funded research has led to key advances in understanding cancers and has helped produce new treatments to enhance and prolong lives. In addition to key research developments, LLS also offers a variety of educational programs and patient services in support of our mission.

How Funds Are Spent*:

Research.....	24.2%
Patient & Community Service.....	30.7%
Public Health Education.....	14.0%
Professional Education.....	5.8%
Total Program Services.....	75.5%
Management & General.....	8.5%
