In re- Petition to open road No. 255

This day came J.T. Gunn and filed herein an agreement signed by John Goose, H.L. Goose, J.T. Blankenbaker, L.A. Blankenbaker, Alice Gunn, Lizzie Goose, Nat Goose, Sallie Goose, J.T. Gunn, Bry Rankin, A. Jones and James Jones, dedicating to Jefferson County, as a County road the tract of land thirty (30) feet in width, as shown by the map filed herein June 24th 1895 said road beginning at a corner to Newkirk and Ellingsworth running thence along the line of Rankin, Elder and Yenowine to H.A. Blankenbaker's corner, thence with H.A. & J.T. Blanknebaker and Rankin to Jones, thence with Jones, thence with Jones, Blankenbaker, and Leonard Goose's heirs to corner to Goose's heir and Kate Snyder, thence with Leonard Goose's heirs and Kate Snyder to John Goose, thence with John Goose and Kate Snyder's line and through John Goose and H.L. Goose's land formerly owned by C.W. Goose to the county road, and it appearing to the Court that all parties in interest have consented to and have joined in said dedication and released said County from any and all claim for damages of any kind by reason of taking of said land for said purpose, or for building of fences, or other damages, it is now considered and adjudged that said road be opened as shown in said map and as dedicated on condition that the petitioners and applicants for said road pay the costs of this procedure and the costs of opening said road and putting the same in condition for travel. J.T. Gunn is hereby authorized, on behalf of the petitioners, to open said roadway, as dedicated, but his compensation, if any, shall be paid by the petitioners.
